House of Representatives

First row: L. Marshall, Speaker Pro-tem; M.N. Meroney, Speaker; T. Johnson, Secretary; J. Shore, Treasurer.

The House of Representatives for 1952-53, sponsored by Miss Faye Martin, was headed by Mary Nell Meroney, speaker; Bill Burke, speaker pro-tem; Tip Johnson, secretary; Julia Shore, treasurer. These officers and one elected member from each homeroom composed this organization.

The first duty of the House of Representatives is to encourage the student body to take pride in the appearance of the buildings and grounds. The second function is to discourage harmful inconsiderate actions as using the wrong steps, breaking in the lunch line, scuffling or running in the hall. Those who violate the rules of the House are brought before the House Court, which is made up of the House officers and one member from each grade in the school.

This year's activities included a chapel program explaining the rules and make up of the House to the eighth grades, and a new Student party which was jointly sponsored by the House, the Student Council, and Honor Society.

Student Council

The Student Council, the governing body of the Student Co-operative Government, has as its duty the promotion of the Honor System in the school. It tries those people suspected of violating the Honor System and corrects those found guilty. Officers for the year 1952-53 were Jake Phelps, president; Richard Chapple vice-president; Bob Hankins, secretary; and Steve Phelps, treasurer.

The Student Council presented chapel programs and discussions in the eighth grade homerooms to explain our Constitution, maintained the Lost and Found, sponsored jointly with the Key Club a mock election, assisted in giving a party to welcome new students and faculty, and sent three delegates to the North Carolina Student Council Congress.

we are making preparations for the National Honor Society Convention for Reynolds was the headquarters.

Carefully laid plans and co-operation of every member help make an induction a success.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Brevard Hoover Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in Reynolds High School in 1922 to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to give service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the pupils of Richard J. Reynolds High School.

The members are chosen on the basis of their character, their scholastic average, their leadership ability, and their service to the school.

The Honor Society initiates many projects and engages in many activities during the year. All the members meet at eight o'clock every Wednesday morning to discuss the business of the Chapter. The Society sponsors the first devotional chapel program at which Mr. Joyner is the featured speaker and in co-operation with the House and the Council gives a party each year for the new students at Reynolds. College Day and Vocational Guidance Week, which are given to help each student decide on what college or vocation to enter, are sponsored and promoted by the National Honor Society. Of course, there are the formal fall and spring induction ceremonies. This year the State Honor Society convention was held in Winston-Salem. Being host to the delegates gave our Chapter an added responsibility. The city and Chapter picnics brought the year to an end. All these and many more activities were headed by our president, Miriam Allred, and were given enthusiastic support by our sponsor Mrs. Marjorie Stephenson.

As we go forth into life, we shall always try to remember and uphold our charge:

"Build character which can withstand the storms of life.
Study to know the truth wherever it is found.
Exert your leadership to build a better world
Where you can serve your God and fellowman."

We always enjoy the humorous program which the new inductees present to us at one of their first meetings.

The introduction itself is very dignified and impressive ceremony; new members are brought up from the audience.

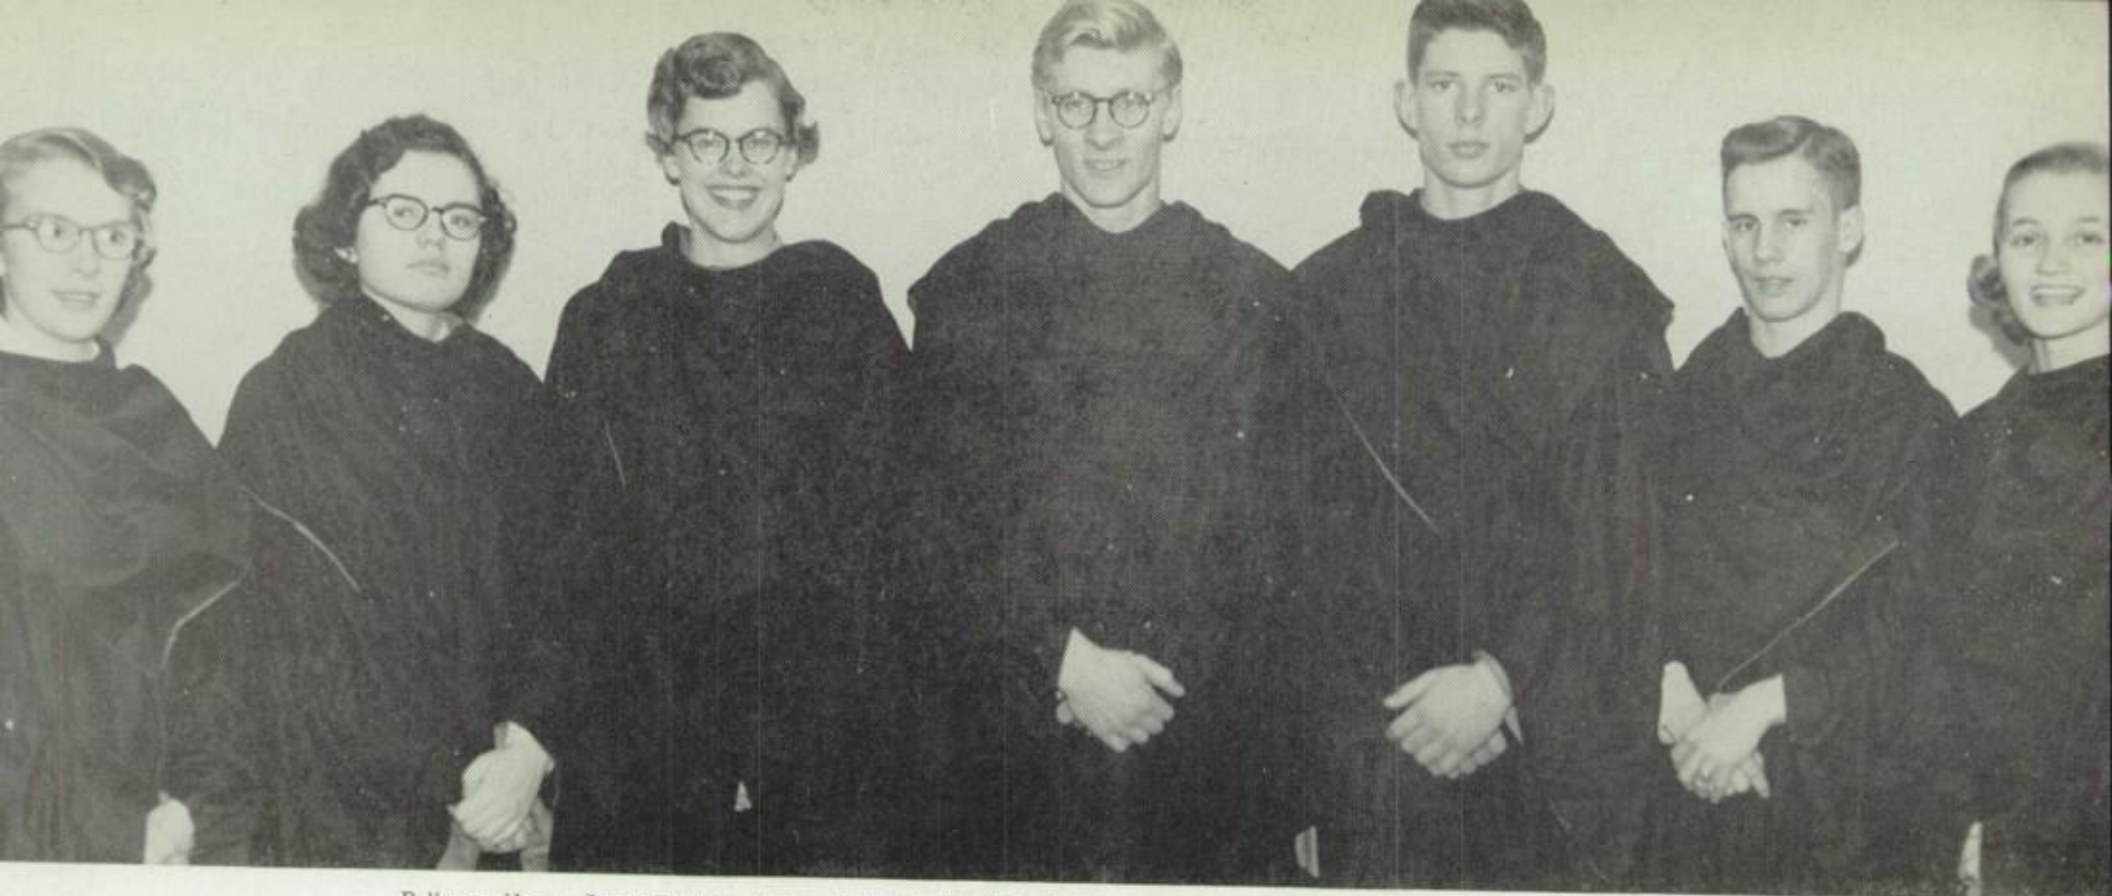

The officers of the National Honor Society are Marjorie Muller, treasurer; Miriam Allred, president; Gordon Bondurant, vice-president; Carol Smith, secretary; and Melba Coston, devotions chairman.

BLACK AND GOLD

The annuals which are distributed at the end of every year represent a tremendous amount of work—work begun in the summer of the year before. This year's annual, edited by Barbara Peddicord and Marjorie Muller, is typical. Working under these two were Jacque Aldridge and Martha Legette, senior editors, and Kay Shepherd and Mary Irving Carlyle, junior editors. This foursome worked with photographers, glossies, and glue to compile the panels for the junior and senior pages. Malcolm Coplon held the birdie for many of the clubs' action shots. Meanwhile, the business staff had the work and the fun of collecting advertisements for the Black and Gold.

PINE WHISPERS

The year 1952-53 was a busy one as always in Room 111. Under the able guidance of Nancy Teague, editor-in-chief, and Marya Bednerik, managing editor, the staff of 16 reporters successfully put out twelve issues of PINE WHISPERS. Mary Lou Darsey and Miller Carmichael, sports editors, kept up with the athletes of Reynolds on page four.

The highlights of the year for the journalists were the big Christmas party given for the staff, the annual trip to the Southern Interscholastic Press Association convention, and the always impressive Quill and Scroll induction.

PRINT SHOP

This year the Print Shop boys have done a tremendous amount of work for the school. Students from the ninth through the twelfth grades make up the crew of print shop Demons.

This year there were a total of 24 boys who began at the first of school. Among the 24 were fifteen beginners, five second year students, three third year, and one fourth year student.

The "Prince of the Press" is Mr. Dale Vaughn. He is tutor of the boys and the one who sees that things run smoothly.

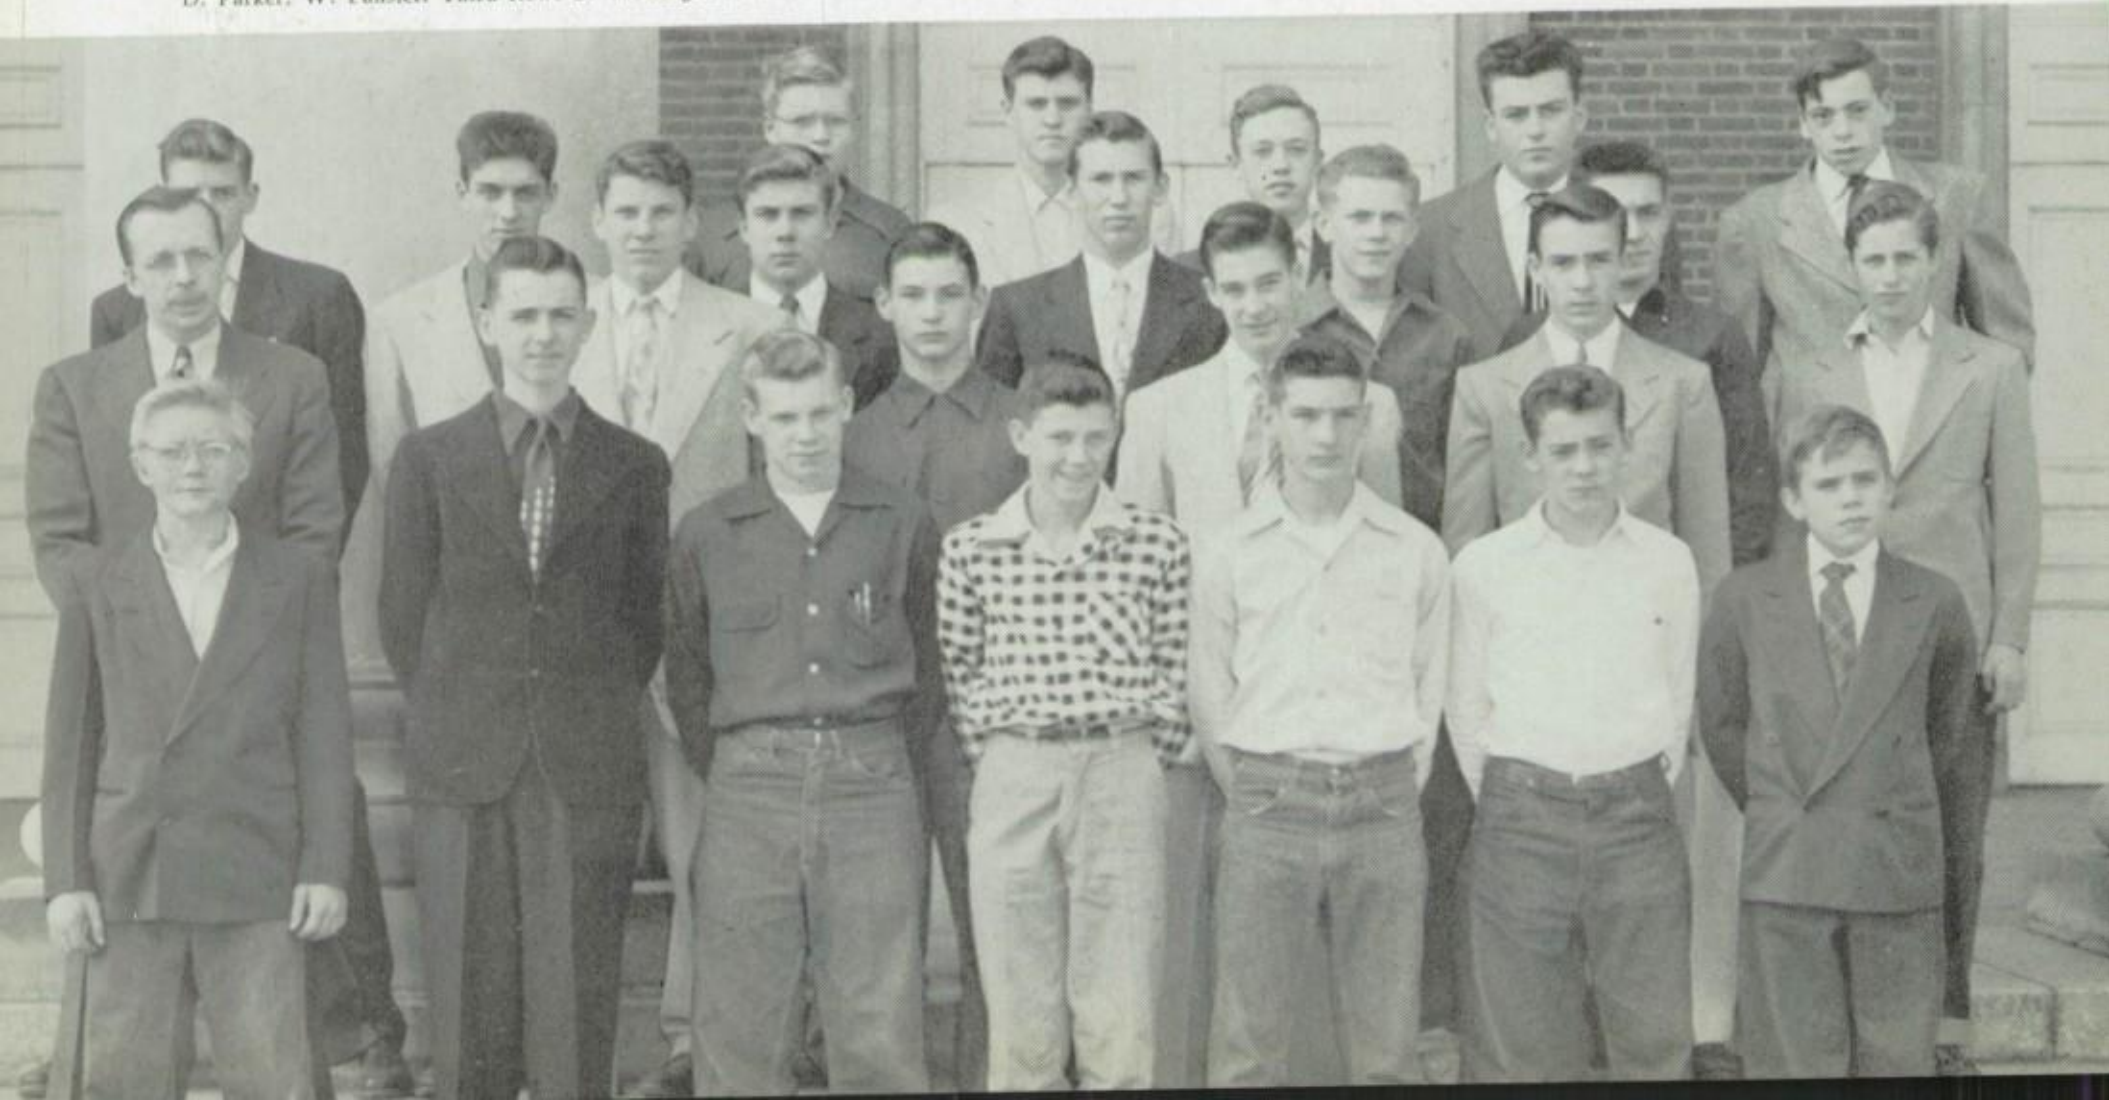

One of the biggest jobs of the year was getting out the Black and Gold. The boys run the club write-ups and identifications, the histories, prophecies, and the last will and testaments, the ads have to be designed and made up. Then it is assembled into pages. The pages are corrected then locked eight pages at a time in the chases and taken to Winston Printing Company who does the press work. They fold and sew the books. Then the annuals are brought back to the print shop where the backs are glued and gauze attached. They are trimmed and the headbands are put on. Last, each book is glued in its cover. This year we have 2378 yearbooks.

Another equally large task is the make-up and the printing which is done in the print shop of the newspapers— Pine Whispers, Hanes Hi Rada, and Gray Light. We received twelve issues of these. Other duties that they perform are the printing of the football programs and football and basketball tickets, yellow cards and ribbons inscribed "Beat Charlotte," "Go Black Demon," tickets and schedules for games, report cards, attendance blanks, excuse blanks, envelopes, stationery, football and basketball banquet programs, posters, library slips, accumulative record folders, schedule cards, PTA invitations, towel tickets, failure notes, sick excuses, lunch permits, and other material used by the high schools and elementary schools of Winston-Salem. This year the State Basketball Tournament programs, tickets, and posters were done in our print shop.

In doing this work the boys taking printing for four years can prepare themselves for an almost certain job in the trade after graduation.

THESPIANS

Time flies, 'tis true, but we know you'll remember the highlights of this wonderful year — the big hit that "Elmer" made with the student body — tryouts and rehearsals for "The Roman Kid" and "Fortunata Writes a Letter"—keeping our fingers crossed for what we hoped would be a prize winning entry in the regional contest — taking our plays to Chapel Hill to the Carolina Playmakers Festival.

And what about those "informative" club programs — classes in make-up and pantomime — building for other clubs and parties — posing sets and scenery — the skits we gave pictures for the annual action shots — keeping a scrapbook of our club activities.

Yes, you'll remember, — how could you forget!

We had fun making a stove for "Fortunata Writes a Letter."

A final rehearsal for "Elmer" was very successful.

Our club was headed by Susan Pardington, Marya Bednerik, and Dave Pardington.

"Resolved: that the Atlantic Pact nations should form a federal union." This was the query on which all high school debaters debated during the year 1952-1953.

The debating club met every Thursday under the leadership of the following officers: Allan Gitter, president; Emerson Wall, vice-president; Judy Peterson, secretary; Gaylord Walker, treasurer.

After Christmas the varsity and junior varsity debating teams were chosen. Those putting in many long hours of work on their speeches were Walter Webb, Mary Nell Meroney, Allan Gitter, and Emerson Wall-the Varsity. On the boys' Junior Varsity were Bruce Brooks, Hank Elkins, Simon Sosnik, Bill Stevens, and Erwin Avery. The Girls' Junior Varsity consisted of Susie White, Barbara Shore, Carolyn Peters, Alice Wahmann, and Pellerree Hearn. Mrs. Evelyn Garrison was sponsor for the group.

Members of the Debating Club also participated in the various speech activities and contests held in the school.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club has been one of the leading service organizations ever since it was organized in 1947. Under the direction of Mr. Ramseur, this group has performed many outstanding functions.

Taking charge of the annual Homecoming Week has been one of the club's customs for the past six years, and they again made this event a success at Reynolds this year.

This year's staff of officers was composed of Bill Gramley, president; Roswell Mallory, vice-president; David Kelly, corresponding secretary; Gerald Wilson, recording secretary; and Bill Bondurant, treasurer.

SENIOR SERVICE CLUB

For those guys of the S. S. C. who don't remember our activities by glancing over these action shots, remember the Saturdays we came to the school to clean out the fish ponds and to clean the blinds in the library? How about the social we had before Christmas. Will "all" of us remember this?

Many thanks go to the ones who so faithfully carried the "demon canvas" to all our football games. The popular records at the basketball games helped pass the time away.

Another thing we couldn't forget is the Christmas Tea for the teachers. That receiving line was really hard. What, manners? By the way Fish, did you ever get any Russian Tea? We'll have to give a lot of credit to Miss Caldwell for helping to make the tea a success.

Let's not forget the week end we took Sam a small Christmas tree and a few gifts. All who went had a most enjoyable time.

Many thanks to Mr. Sifford, our sponsor. We'll always remember the great guy that he was, always willing to help and to give us suggestions and the bills.

Not only will these activities mentioned here remain with us, but the memories and lasting friendships will always be remembered of the S. S. C. of '53.

meetings were a lot of fun— but we did get sometimes.

The S. S. C. honored a teacher and a student each six weeks.

It's always fair weather when we fellows get together.

The first thoughts of this years Monogram Club should be those of our officers. This years club was led by Roswell Marory as president and Tinnie Chapple as vice-president. Gordon Bondurant was the secretary, while Droop Goodson kept the treasury.

The first project that the Monogram Club undertook was the selling of ribbons during football season. The committee for making the ribbons was headed by Bob Boerner and Frank Groat and Miller Carmichael, but the entire club did the selling of them.

With the funds raised by the ribbons, the Club gave two turkeys at Thanksgiving. One of the birds was presented to Sonny Cook by us, and the other was given to Broadus Evans who helps around the school.

As everyone remembers, the biggest project of the Club this year was the Black and Gold game. This proved to be a great success.

Of course no club member could ever forget our sponsor. Mr. Tandy, who led us not only as a coach, but as a real friend. Through our contacts with him we emerge better men than we were before.

These were our officers: Roswell Mallory, Tinnie Chapple, Gordon Bondurant, and Droop Goodson.

The Monogram Club made black and gold ribbons to sell before each game.

COLLEGE CLUB

There are 100 reasons why the College club is outstanding. That is because there are 100 girls who are members and who are preparing themselves for college life and deciding upon the school to attend. Through speakers, movies, and students from various colleges, the club has helped the senior girls to make their decisions. Some of the colleges represented were W. C. U N. C., Salem, Duke University, and Meredith. Other programs enjoyed by the group included a music performance presented by members of the club, a special Christmas monologue given by Mrs. Alton Jackson, and a talk on the religious attitude of a college freshman by Dr. Julian Lake, and a spring fashion show.

The members of the club have taken part in many worthwhile projects. Some of the activities were making Christmas greetings for the entire school, putting on a display for the homecoming exhibit, and helping with the annual College Day.

On the night of graduation a deserving girl in the club is each year presented with a one hundred dollar scholarship which the members have raised. After the presentation of diplomas the club holds open house for the graduates, their families, their dates, and the Reynolds High faculty.

Thanks must be given to Miss Weaver, our sponsor, who has been a sincere friend, a helpful advisor on college life, and has helped make the College club an enjoyable one for us and a credit to our school.

1. The executives of the College Club are as follows: Miriam Allred, program chairman; Marjorie Muller, secretary; Miss Janie Weaver, sponsor; Jackie Correll, treasurer; Eleanor Crossley, vice-president; and Lindsay Marshall, president.

Peggy Paul, Sarah Buie, Mary Lib Spillers, and Nancy Blum serve as models for the spring fashion show which was given for the club. Clothes for all phases of activities were exhibited.

3. Rev. James Hughes, assistant pastor of the Home Moravian Church was the center of attention when he spoke on religious life at college. Here Martha McBrayer, Patsy Peyton, Rev. Hughes, Delores Schaefer, Joanne Puryear, and Barbara Hendrix discuss religion.

Shirley Conrad, Mary Nell Mernoney, and Dianne Gibson try to sell Mrs. Elizabeth Ritter a box of the notepaper which the club sold to raise money for the scholarship that they give each year.

5. The tea given after graduation is the climax of the College Club activities. Jackie Moser, Diane Roane, Barbara Ledbetter, and Billie Cummings wait their turn as Martha Legette serves the punch.

SENIOR HI-Y

Sponsors

The Senior Hi-Y has become one of the leading organizations of high school boys. It, as are the other Hi-Y clubs, is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. for boys who are interested in promoting work of high standards in their school and community.

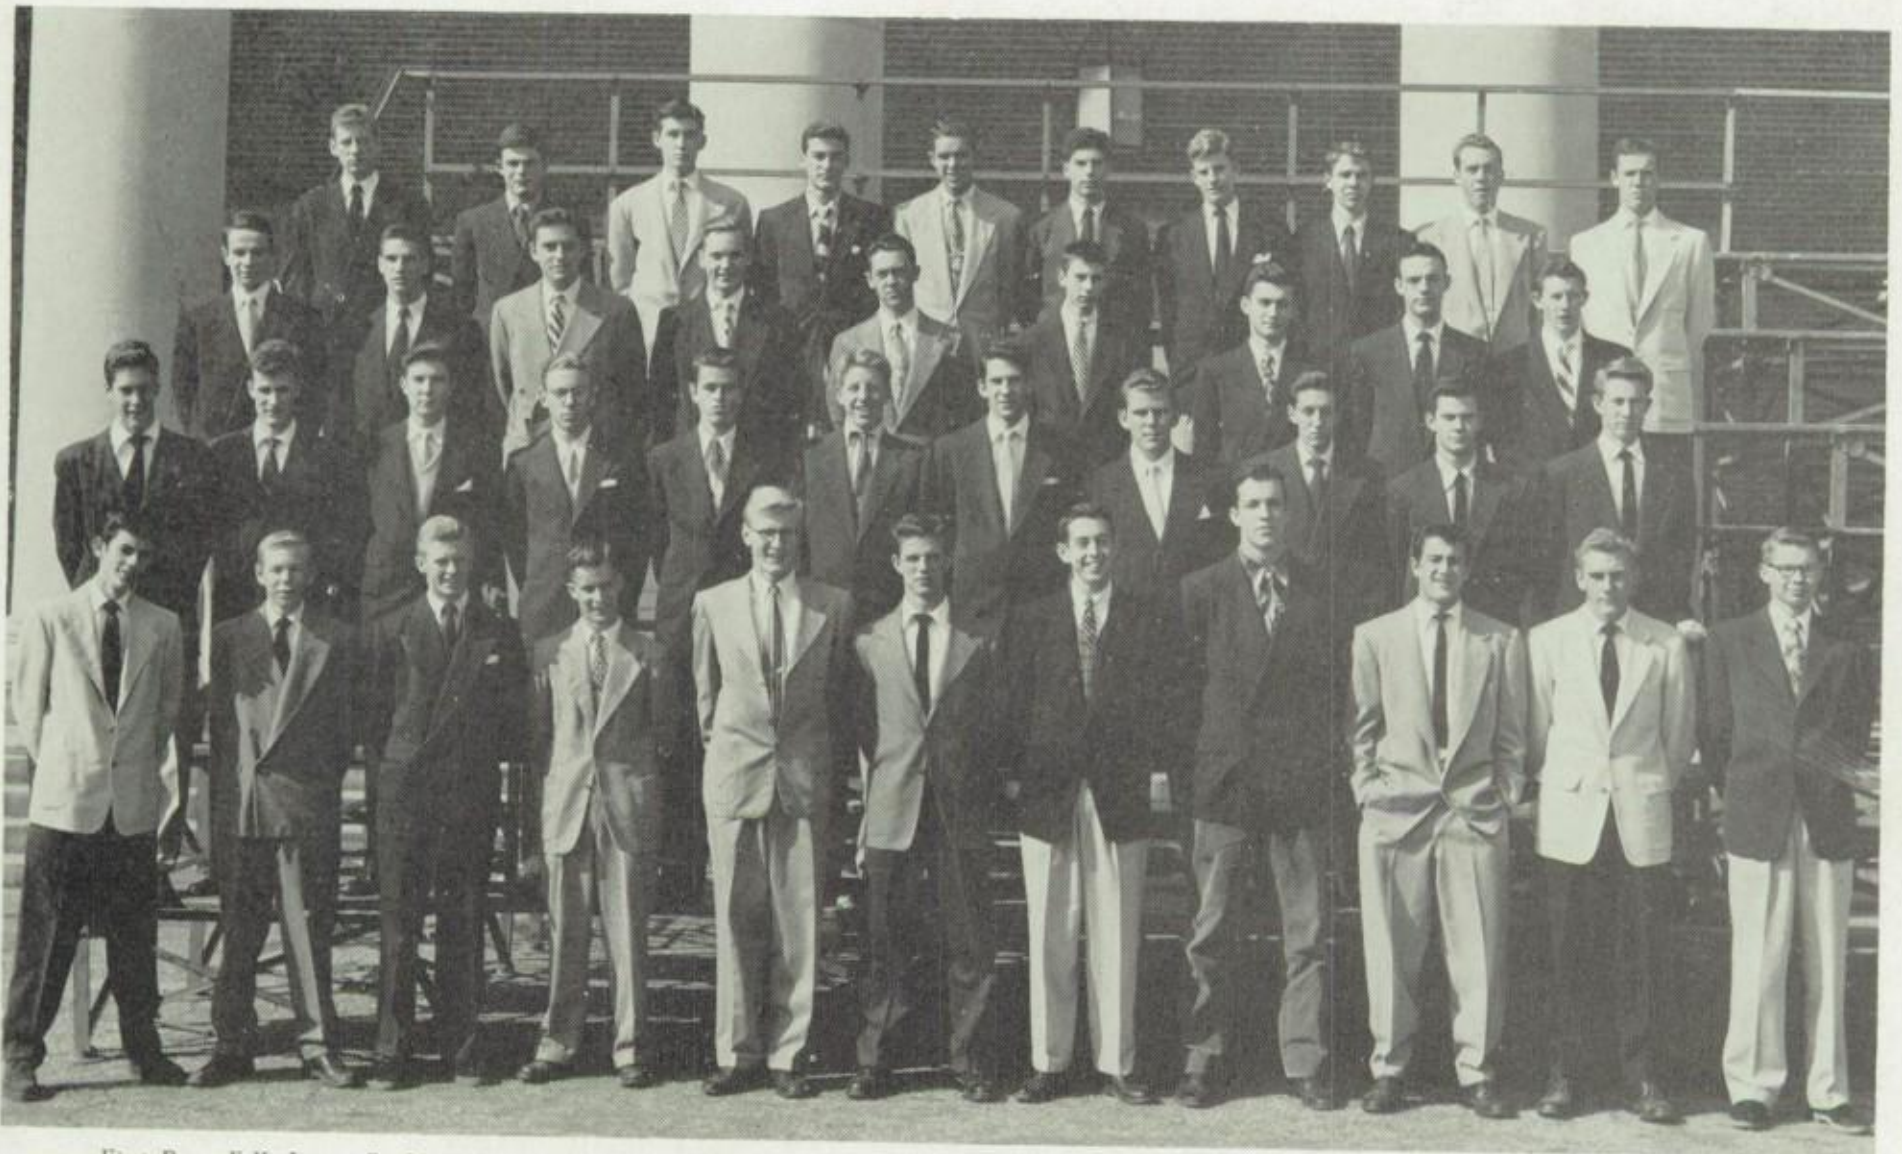

The officers of the present Senior Hi-Y are as follows: Bill Burke, president; Bill Gramley, vice-president; Dave Pardington, treasurer; Jimmy Pfaff, secretary; and Gordon Bondurant, chaplain.

PEGGY PAUL
MARTHA LEGETTE
JANE IRBY

This club has made an outstanding record during the past four years. Two years ago, as a sophomore organization, it received National Recognition for high achievements. In the same year the group won second place in the city Hi-Y basketball league.

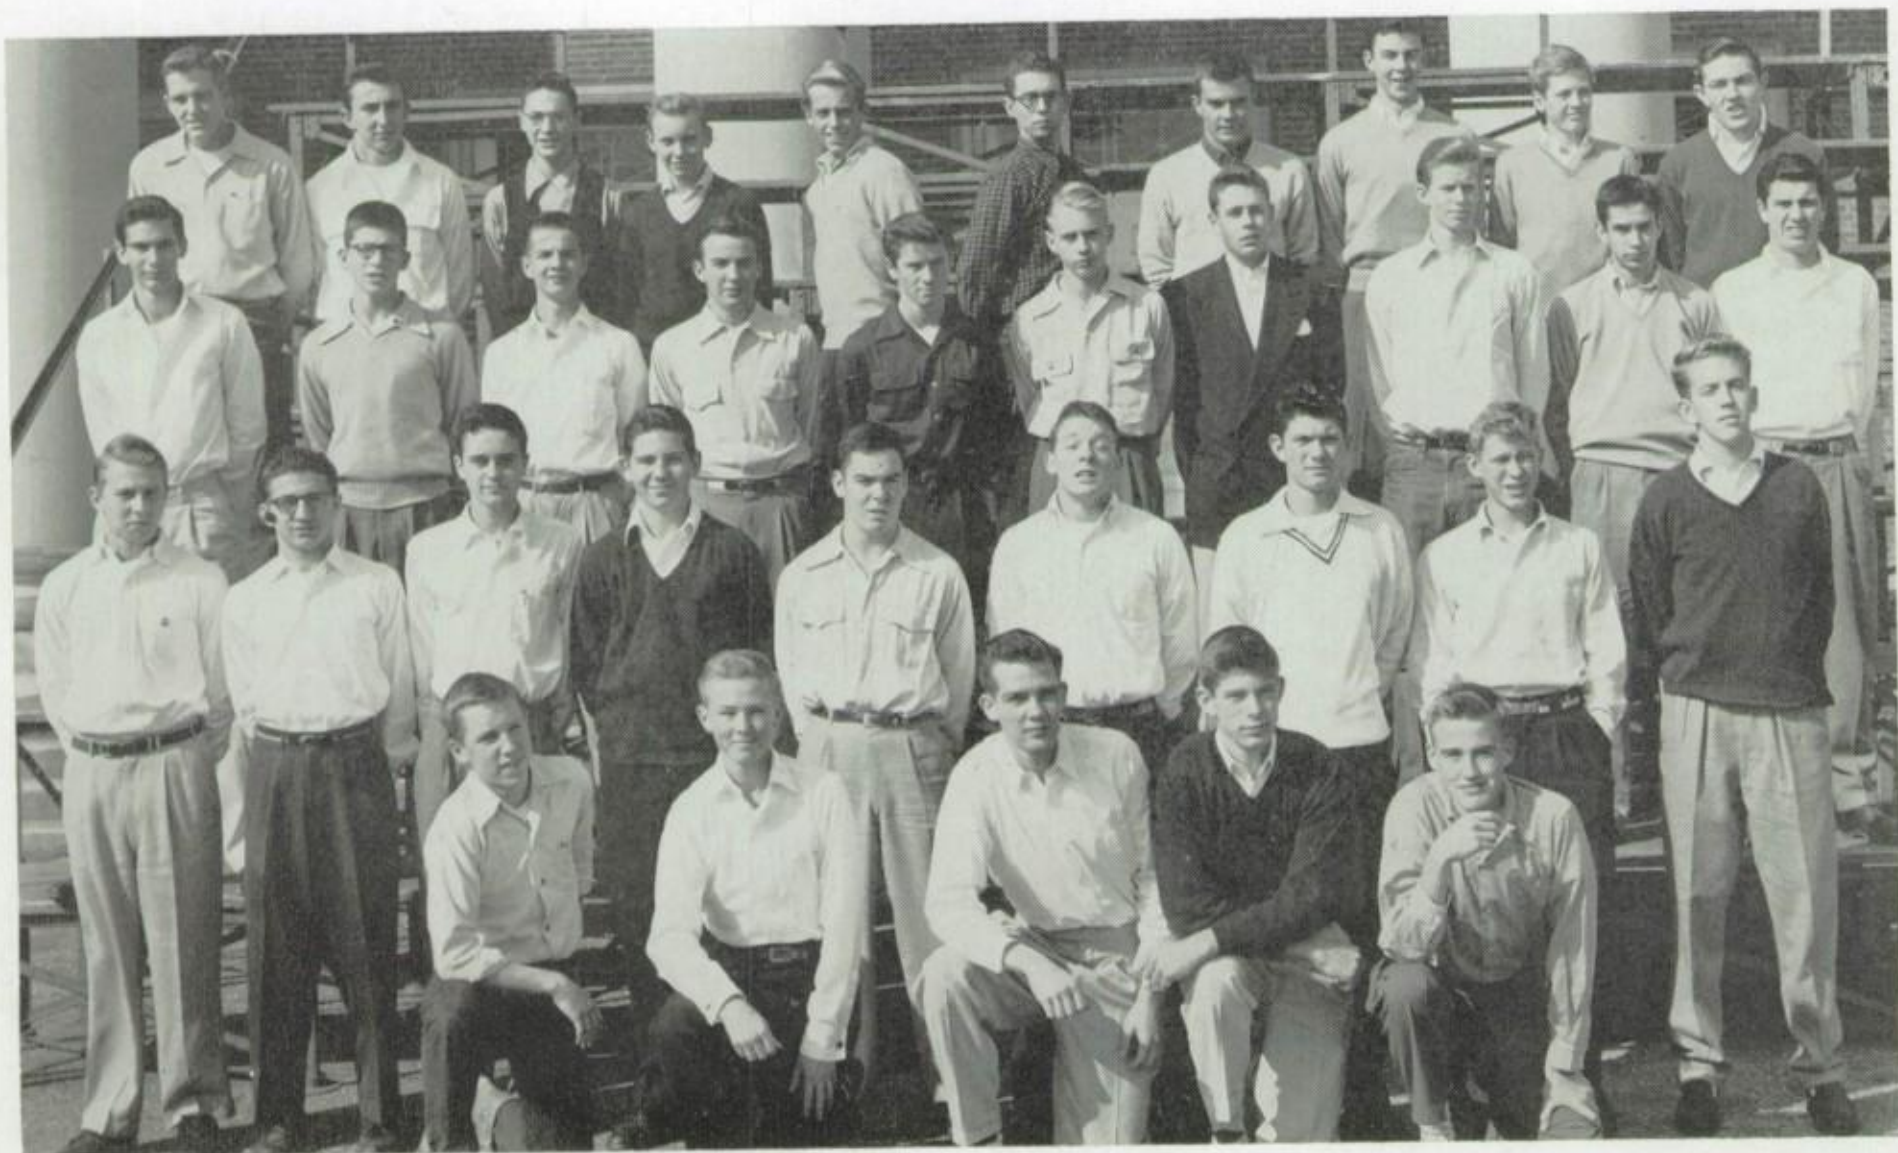

The Hi-Y clubs have varied activities. They sponsor chapel programs, dances, hay rides, and other programs for young people.

SERVITEERS

Again this year the Junior girls organized the "Serviteers", their service club at R. J. R. Jackie O'Brine led the 69 girls as the club president, assisted by Becky Hinkle, vice-president; Mary Evelyn Lingle, secretary; Dot Hundley, treasurer.

With Mrs. Charlotte Swanson as its faculty advisor, the club undertook several new service projects—one, the making of a sport's scrap-

A scrapbook containing the football highlights was sent to Sammy Saunders book for Sammy Saunders. Individuals in the club helped the school throughout by small services such as decorating bulletin boards and making streamers for our games.

In the spring, they sponsored the annual "Sadie Hawkins' Dance", which many students enjoyed and considered one of the highlights of the season's event.

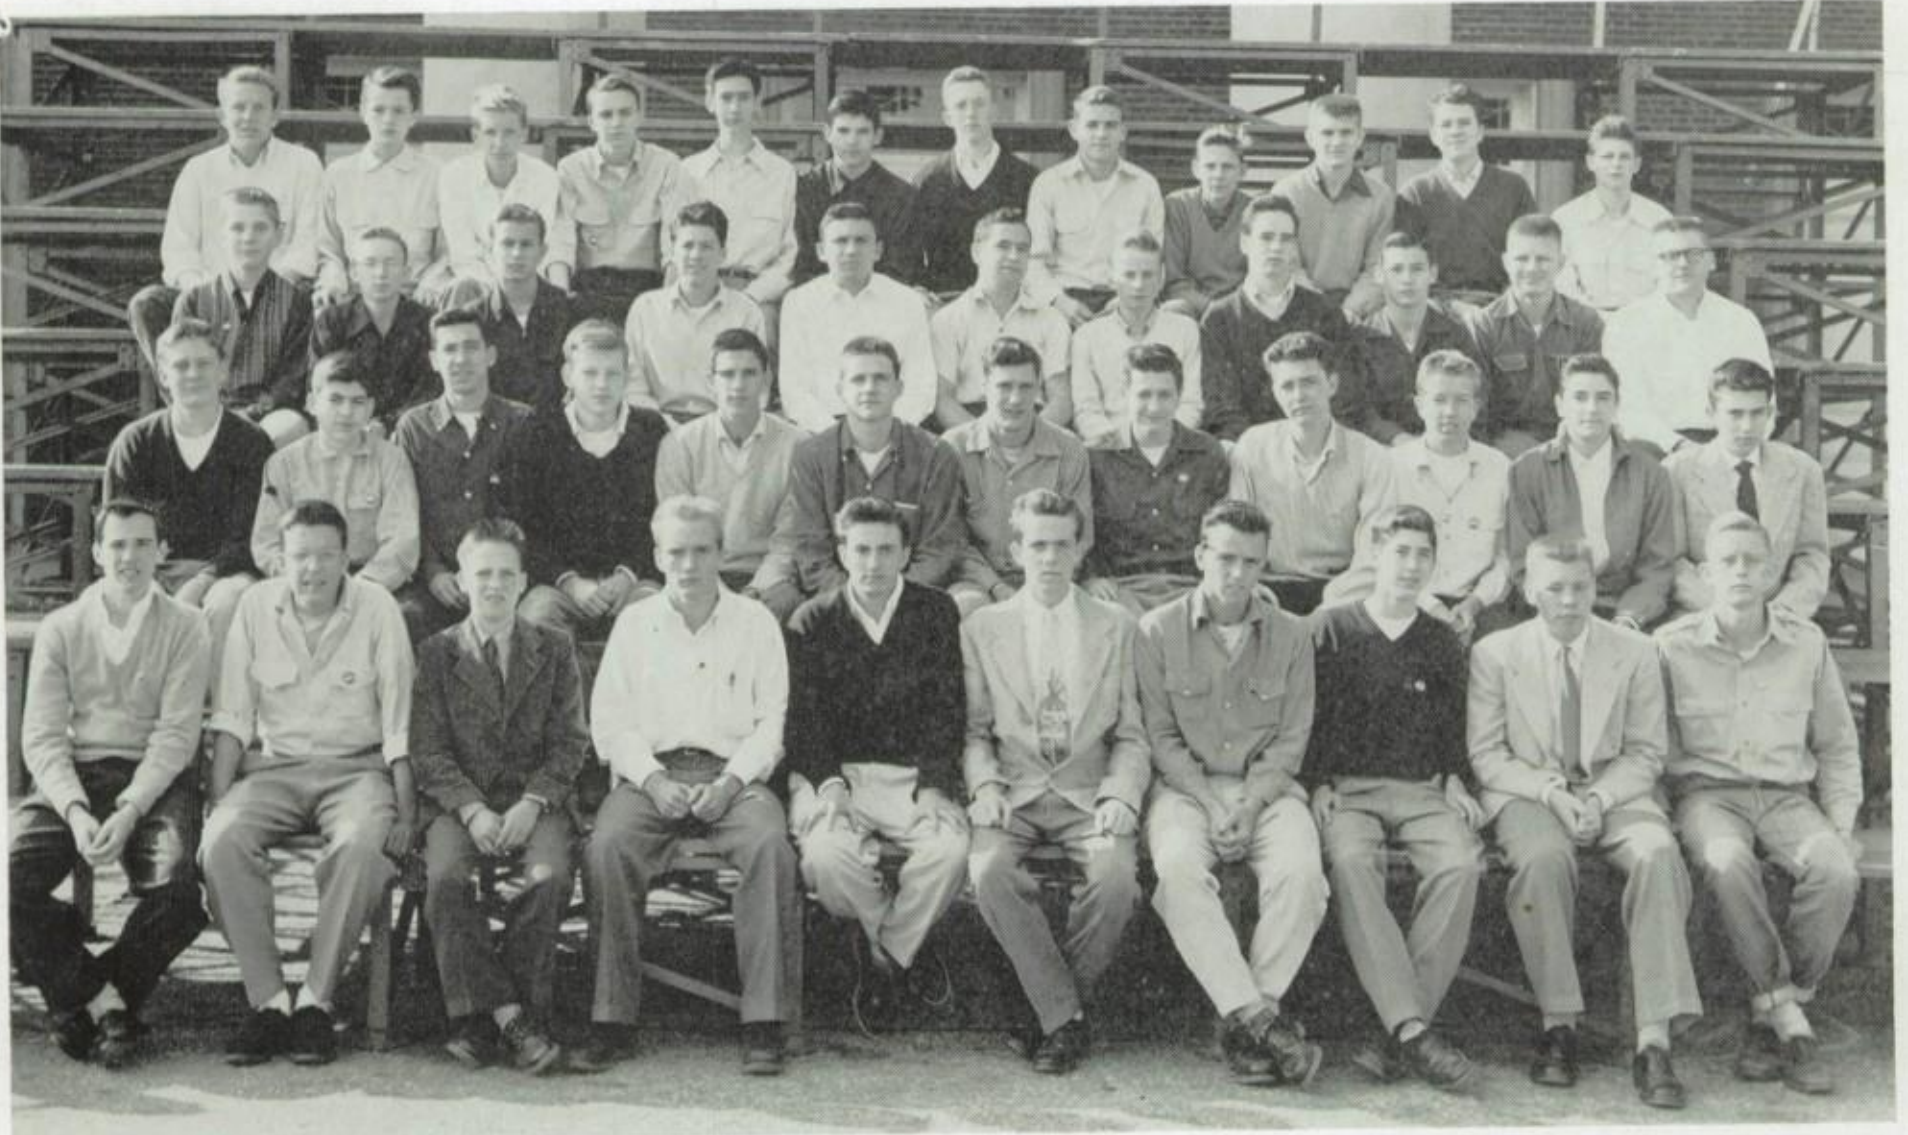

A group of us made some very pretty cards.

We kept the bulletin board in the Home Ec. room looking neat.

FRENCH CLUB

The three French clubs under the direction of Mrs. Annie Preston Fearrington have had a busy year. One of the outstanding events was the program for the French Division of the Western District of the North Carolina Educators Association. At that time Patty Hines, Peggy Adams, Lindsay Marshall, and Joe Clodfelter gave descriptions in French of scenes from France. Gaylord Walker showed the pictures and read the titles. The second year class decorated the room for the occasion.

Many interesting programs have been given in class for the various clubs. The members of the second year club will long remember the vivid accounts of the French people presented by vivacious Guilmette, French exchange student at Salem. At another time, slides and stories of personal experiences in Europe were given by Gaylord Walker, who has recently returned from France. During another meeting the strains of the opera "Carmen" could be heard nearby as the students listened to a program of French music.

Many of the students have been gaining valuable information about French customs and life from their overseas correspondents. This has given them an opportunity to use their vocabulary and to further international friendship.

The presidents of the three clubs are as follows: Gerald Wilson, Bill Bondurant, and Bobby Armfield.

Gerald Wilson, Margaret Herring, Mary Irving Carlyle, and David Eddleman watch a puppet show.

Lindsay Marshall, Barbara Smith, and Gaylord Walker work on the puppets.

IDENTIFICATION

1. Air attack! Watch out below!
2. We did it again; what a game that was!
3. Listen to those words of wisdom, boys.
4. We're proud and prejudiced: our team is just great!
5. They've just got to make that play.
6. For he's a jolly good fellow!—Coach Tandy.
7. Dig in there, boys! Practice makes perfect.

FOOTBALL— 1952

The 1952 football team brought to Reynolds a sensation never before experienced— that of being a State Champion.

For the first time in the history of R. J. Reynolds High School the students had the honor of having the State Champion Football team in the AAA Conference.

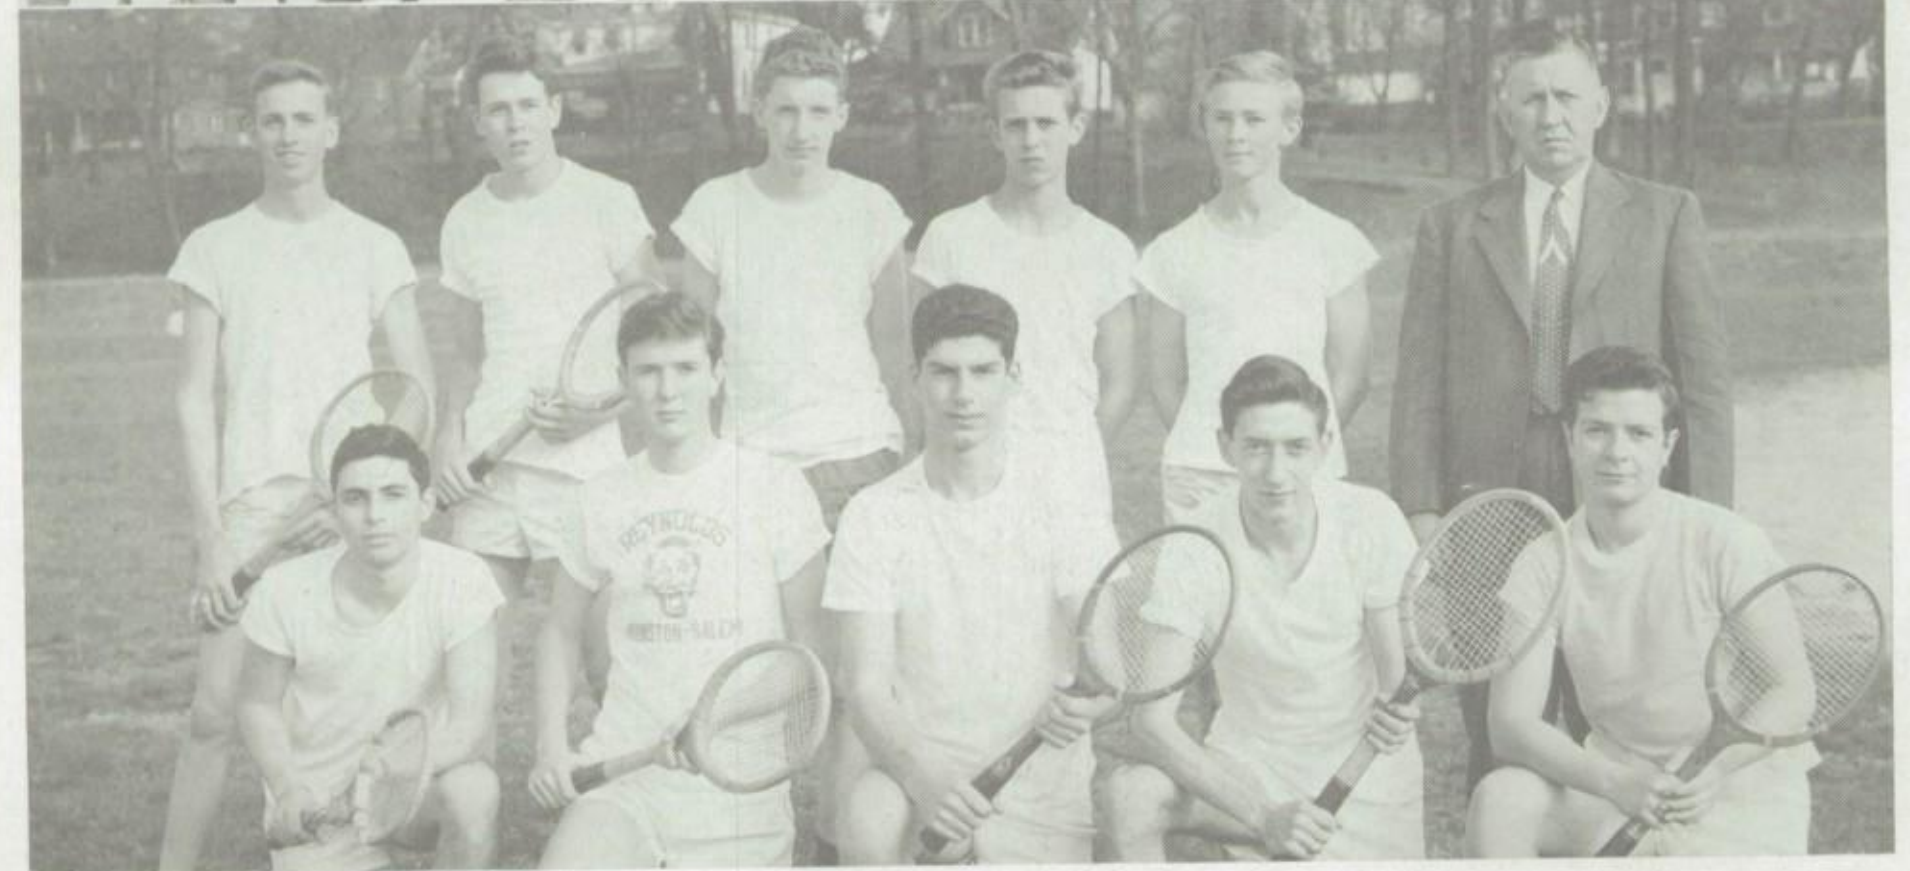

After winding up as City Champions, the Demons moved into conference standing with two fast wins. Then, after a week's rest, the Black Demons met their first defeat at the hands of Greensboro. The Demons retaliated and returned to the win column by defeating Gastonia.

The Demons answered all of these questions by upsetting the Durham team to win Reynolds' first State Championship.

The next week the Reynolds eleven traveled to Durham for a nonconference tilt where they met their second defeat. On the following week the Demons really showed the state that they wanted to play ball when they defeated the conference leading Charlotte Wildcats.

After defeating High Point and Salisbury in two close games, the Demons moved to Charlotte for the Western Conference title game. When the Demons defeated Central, it was certain they had a great team, but the question was whether they could defeat a team that had held them to but one touchdown and had run wild when they wanted to in the previous game.

GRAY HIGH GYMNASIUM

Any record would certainly be incomplete without classes . . .

First-year typing students are instructed by Miss Artelee Puett.

Standing: D. Truell, Mrs. Monte Warner, W. Wolfe, J. Hill. Seated: D. Beck, B. Geforth. Each concentrates on his woodwork project.

Mrs. Jessie Ostrander, a student's real friend — understanding, helpful, and patient — is a person one will long remember.
To show our appreciation, we, the senior class, dedicate to her our section of the 1953 BLUE and GOLD.

Mrs. Jessie Ostrander sells Shirley Myers and Doris Wooten supplies.

Mrs. Ostrander instructs Barbara Tolson and Barbara West concerning the use of the typewriter.

The cheering section leads the football team on to victory!

Miss Kathleen Hall, student adviser, and National Honor Society members register students.

Visiting at their lockers between classes are J. Barr, B. Ellington, and J. Brown.

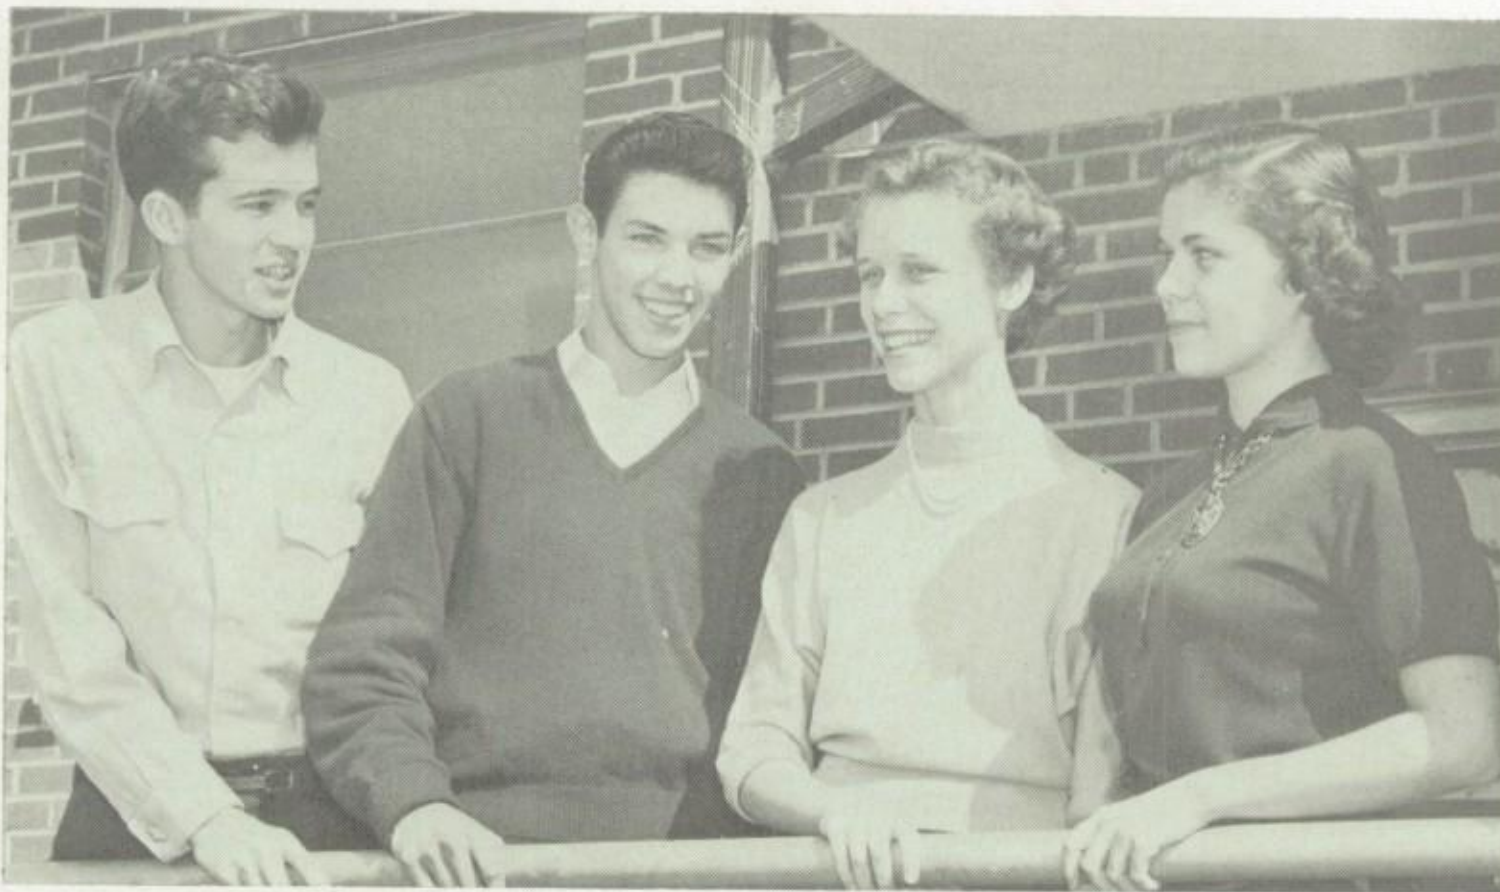

Visiting at our lockers between classes and after school—the cheering sections with all their pep and energy—the hustle and excitement of the meeting of old friends and finding our new homerooms on the first day of school—seeing our football team off on trips in hopes of other victories—going to assembly and watching our dignified seniors come down the aisles----

Spring coming and everyone sitting on the steps talking—supporting our basketball team at their games in our new gym—standing in line at the Snack Bar in hopes of getting something to eat—going to the ball park and watching our baseball team win—these memories will long be cherished by Grayites.

Coach Cash, Bill Jones, and Jerry Huff board the bus in hopes of another victory.

SENIOR OFFICERS

Senior class officers, James Roland, president; Don Swaim, treasurer; Shirley Caudill, vice-president; and Carol Sloan, secretary; discuss plans for the annual dedication.

CLASS DAY OFFICERS

Class Day Officers, Shirley Baucom, historian; Anita Hiatt, prophet; and Beverly Nance, testator; make plans for their write-ups in the yearbook.

October 14 — At today's meeting, discussion of the ground problem was carried on by Shirley Caudill, our vice-president.

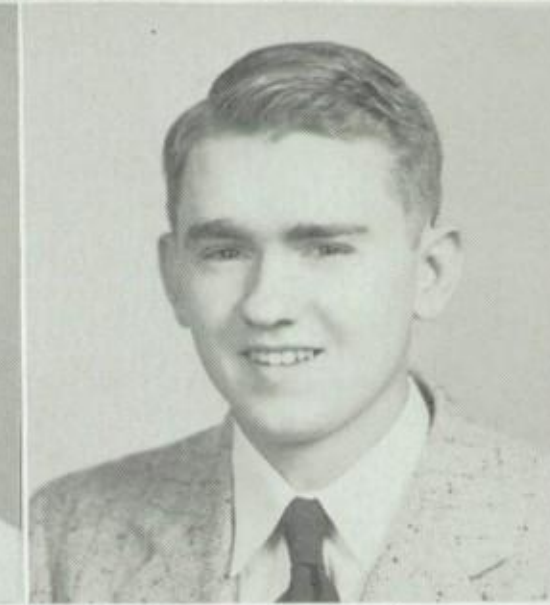

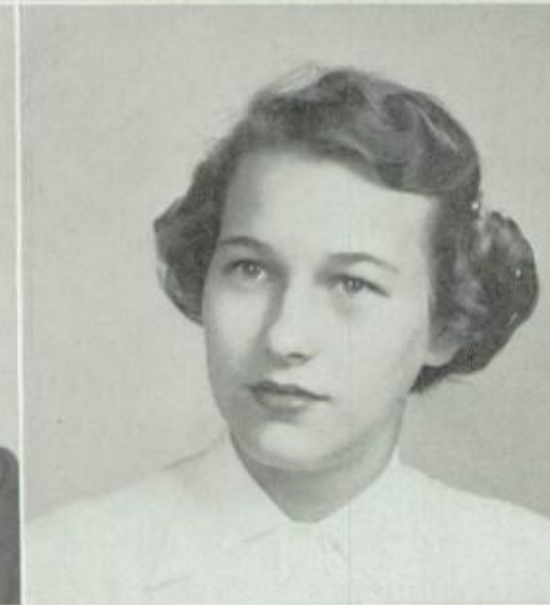

May 26 — Today, at our last senior class meeting, we discussed plans for Class Day and Graduation. What excitement!

September 23 — Today the officers began their service to the senior class. Jimmy Roland called the meeting to order and business discussion was led by Don Swaim, who is board member as well as class treasurer.

STUDENT OFFICERS

Student officers Eddie Owens, vice-president; Bill Ellington, assistant-secretary; Jerry Anne Jervis, president; Carol Sloan, corresponding secretary; Montine Ycung, recording secretary; and Ralph Siewers, treasurer, peep around the tree to see what the future holds for them.

January 28, 1953—Because for the first time in the history of Gray High School all the student officers for the first semester have been re-elected, the installation was in the form of a board meeting. An informal discussion was held with the officers, boardmembers, and superintendents participating.

Jimmy Rose, portraying the part of an old man, entered the board meeting looking for students characterizing loyalty, friendliness, and honesty. When confronted by Jerry Anne, he said that he had come to the wrong place; he would never find what he was looking for here.

The students, by their discussion of school problems and their answers to the questions concerning the improvements to be made, convinced him that he had come to the right place.

Miss Sally Johnston pledged the faculty's support to the board for the new semester, and thanked each member of the board for his helpfulness.

There were twenty-five seniors and thirty-two juniors who had earned at least two hundred points for service during their years in high school. They received their pins from Mr. J. A. Woodward, principal. Douglas Johnston, a junior, received the honor pin awarded each year to the student who had done the most outstanding work for the school.

Miss Kathleen Hall is faculty adviser for the student organization.

SUPERINTENDENTS

Superintendents— First row: P. Walker, D. Casper, C. Burns, S. Myers. Second row: H. Southerland, C. Hurst, M. Call, N. Knouse, S. Hyatt, M. Alspaugh, E. Guinn, E. Speas, G. Newell. Third row: W. Couch, G.

Nancy Knouse, superintendent, looks up a record in the files.

September 30 — Something new has been added to our student organization— a safety department! Its duty is to help prevent accidents on the school grounds.

There are now 26 departments. One of the most active is the Traffic, whose duty it is to see that the students move in the right direction.

November 12 — Another department that has been doing a lot of work is the Public Relations. They have been sending cards to students and teachers who are out because of sickness. They also sent Christmas cards to all the teachers.

May 28 — The main job of the Personal Relations is to prevent problems from arising and to help students with their difficulties. The recording superintendents are working hard getting students' records up to date so that they will be ready for Awards Day.

Marv Ruth Long admits Billie Bowman to the nurses' room.

September 30 — Being nurse's room and office pages we have added responsibilities. Not only do we who are nurse's pages have to notify teachers of sick students and then take care of minor cuts but also make and keep records of the patients' visit to the nurse's room.

Those of us who are office pages have an even bigger job than the nurse's pages. The work covers a much larger field—everything from answering the telephone and running errands to mimeographing!

OFFICE AND NURSE'S ROOM PAGES

First row: Miss Ruth Holton, A. Walker, P. Burchett, S. Hyatt, L. Hutchins, P. Higginbotham, G. Newell, C. Burns, J. Barnes, J. Yates.

P. Hartley, F. Hilton. Second row: P. Walker, S. Baucom, K. Shumaker, C. Hurst, A. Harris, A. Hiatt, D. Adams.

November 19— The faculty was honored in the library at a Book Week Tea, sponsored by the Council and Pages. JoAnn Reich, Linda Rutledge, and Wilma Walker served at the punch bowl. My, that ginger ale and lime ice cream was really good!

December 16— Many students and teachers were observing the lovely Christmas bulletin boards in the library today. Harriet Southerland, Shelby Elliot, and JoAnn Swaim are responsible for these.

January 8 — The first library meeting of 1953 was held this morning with Magdalene Walker, superintendent of the council, presiding. One of the pages suggested that we have a coke party next Wednesday at recess!

HANES

*For her friendly attitude, her helpfulness to students,
and her ardent enthusiasm for sports and sportsmanship, we, the Class of 1953, dedicate this section of the PURPLE and GOLD
to Mrs. Lucretia Shermer.*

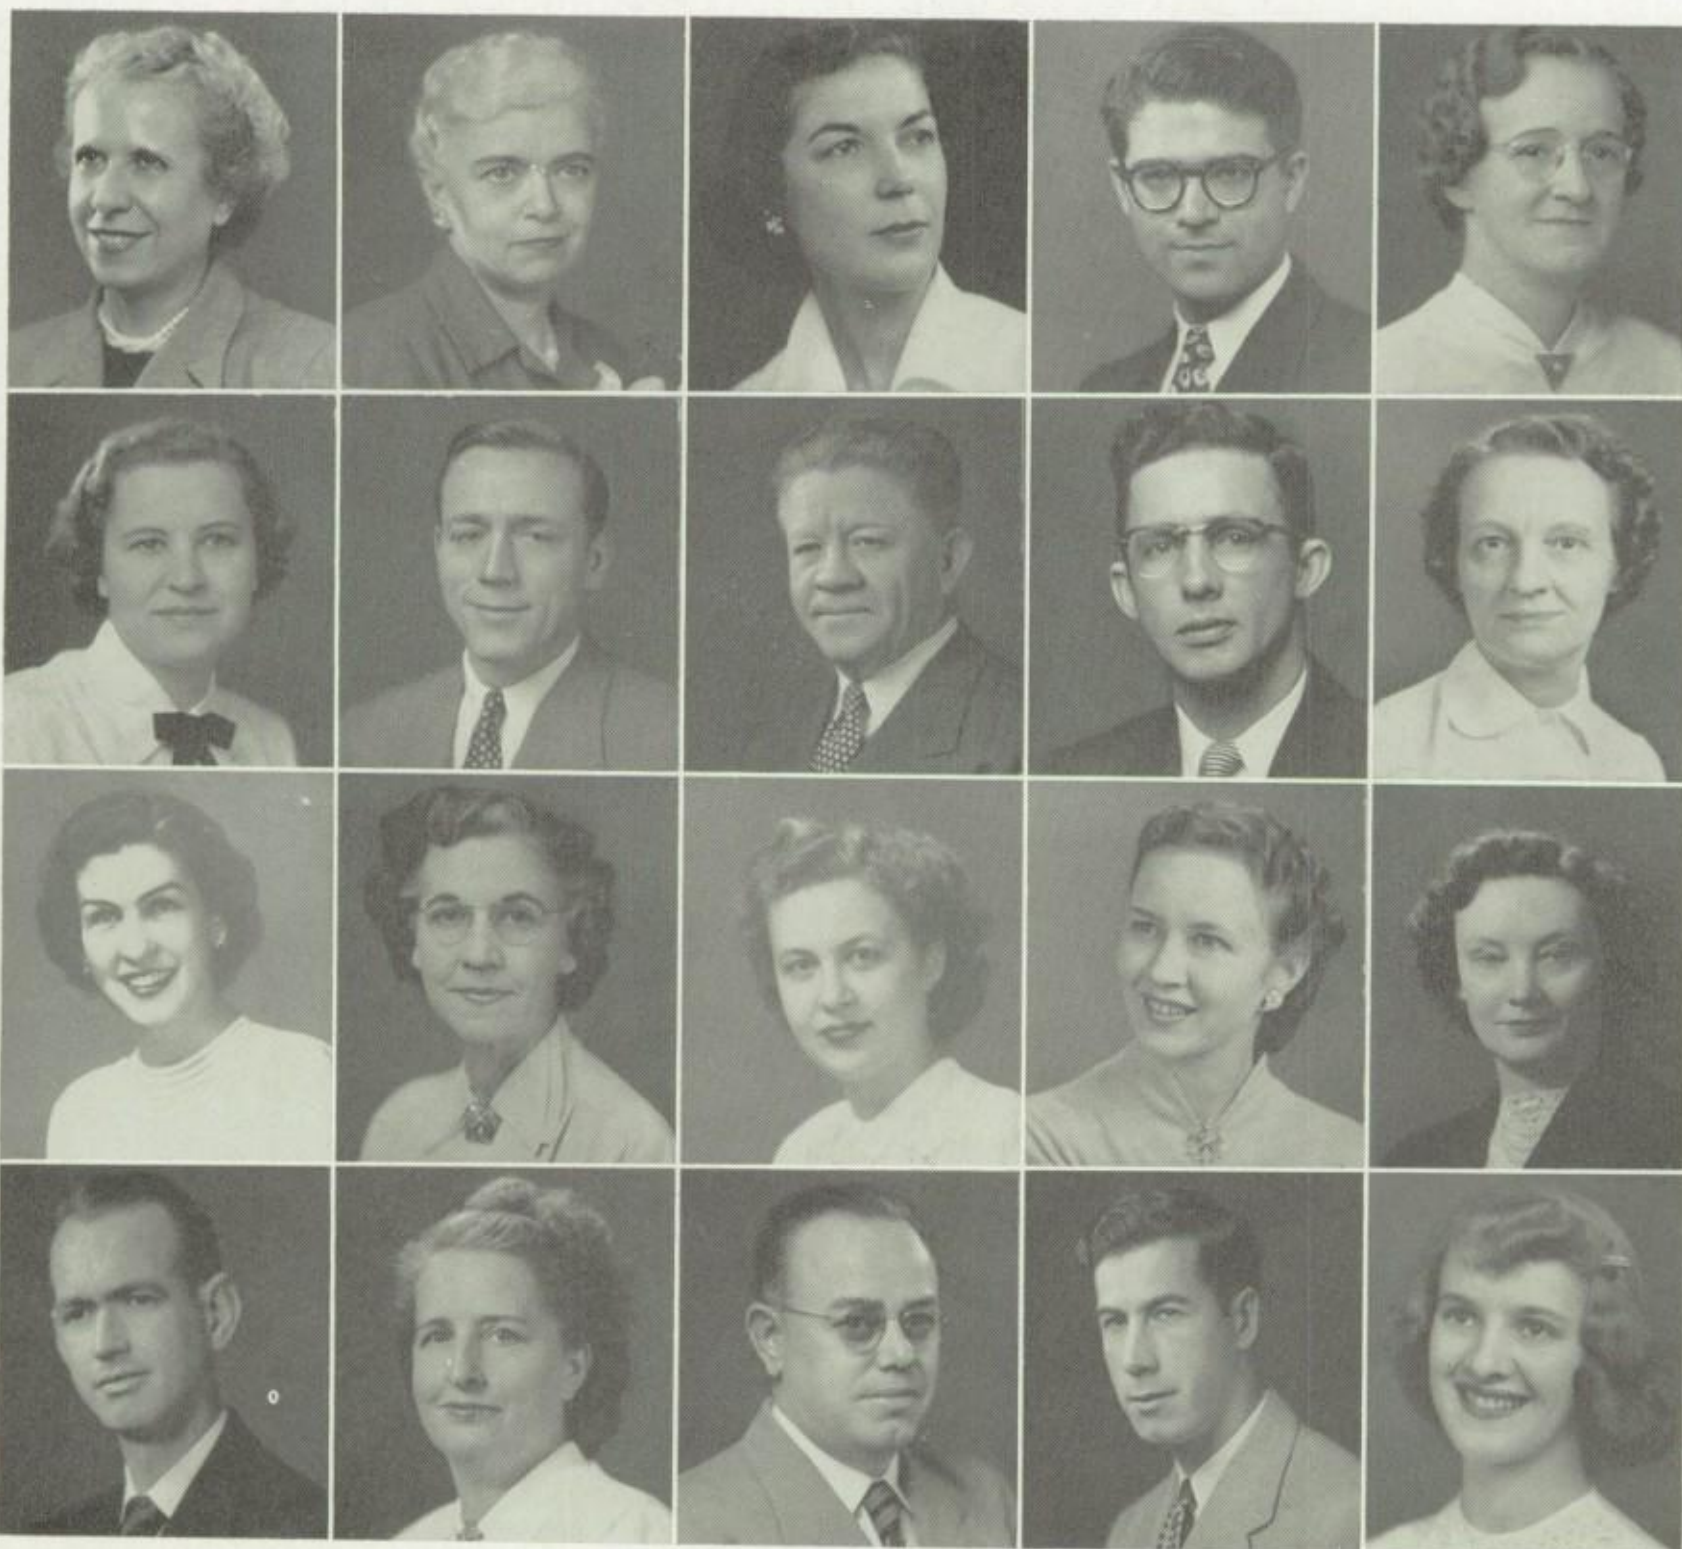

Peggy.
 You are a very nice, cute and sweet girl! It has been real nice knowing you! Lots of luck!

Lillie Dinnette

Our faculty will be long remembered for their patient guidance in our classrooms.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT OFFICERS

Mr. Haltiwanger, sponsor; Wayne Gough, mayor; Charles Hoover, Monitor-in-Chief; Robert Dockery, City Manager.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government of Hanes High is run on the same plan as the city government of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. It has a Mayor and City Manager, Wayne Gough and Robert Dockery, respectively, the same as the city government.

The court consists of a judge, Shirley Blanton; a clerk, Weeta White; a solicitor, Frances Freeman; and a stenographer, Barbara Ratledge. Mrs. Alliene Burns acts as the faculty advisor for the court and the Monitors Club, which is the same in student government as the police force is in the city government.

The Board of Alderman makes the laws for Hanes High and meets once a week with the Mayor presiding. They are elected to represent each homeroom for each semester.

PUBLICATIONS

This year the two publications of Hanes High School, the Hanes Hi Rada and the Purple and Gold, were published by Journalism students.

All the editorial work for the eleven issues of the school paper was done by the Rada staff with co-editors editing stories, planning pages, and proof-reading.

The Annual co-editors began their work in late fall by taking pictures and planning pages. Finally pictures were cut and arranged and pages proofed.

Each year the two publications are judged at the Southern Inter-scholastic Press Association at Lexington, Virginia.

Last year the Hanes Hi Rada re-Honorable Mention for the Scholastic Press Award presented by the North Carolina Press Association at the S. I. P. A. Convention; and the school paper and annual both received "Honor" ratings.

The Latin Club, composed of students who have taken or who are now taking Latin, was organized to promote a better understanding of the Romans and the Latin language.

Activities of the club include playing of Latin games, singing songs in Latin, dramatizations, playlets, making Latin valentines, posters and scrapbooks.

Latin is truly international and is a bond between nations. Whatever line of work one may enter, he will find Latin useful. Not only does it increase ones knowledge of his own language but aids in understanding and learning other languages.

The 1952-53 Spanish Club was formed by students who had already taken one year of Spanish and those who are taking their initial course.

Interesting book reports were given through-out the year by members of the club. A study of the customs, the problems of daily life, and the people of Mexico was also made.

Members of the club learned more about Spanish by making up conversation in Spanish, while other members translated this into English.

In January, a Spanish bulletin board was prepared by the students. The theme was "Spanish Fiesta". It consisted of colorful Spanish pictures and type-written explanations.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y is an organization for high school boys and is sponsored by the local Young Mens Christian Association, at whose building all regular meetings are held.

Membership is given to boys who meet the standards set up by the club. The club slogan is "Clean Speech — Clean Thoughts — Clean Living"; the aim is to do one's best in study, speech, and sports in the developement of a Christian personality and in service to make life more worth while for oneself and one's associates.

For the developement of spirit, mind, and body, the members participate whole-heartedly in the program and service projects of the club.

Each year the club participates in the Hi-Y basketball tournament.

Y-TEENS

The 1952-53 Y-Teens got off to a slow start but improved steadily. A chapel program was given using the Y-Teen Song as a background. Using the theme of "Christmas Cards," attractive bulletin boards were made.

Vickie Brinegar represented Hanes Y-Teens at the State Convention in Greensboro this year.

The directors of the Y-Teen sponsored a "Charm Clinic" at the Y. W. C. A. every Tuesday in the month of April. Movies, talks, and demonstrations were presented on voice, personality clothes, hair and make-up.

The officers were Ann Carpenter, President; Gayle Heck, Vice-President; Sue Hightshoe, Secretary; Barbara Ledwell, Treasury; Pat Carter, Inter-Club Council Representative.

Miss Brown was our advisor from the Y. W. C. A.

REYNOLDS CLASS DAY DOCUMENT OF THE CLASS OF '53

Time: 2003 A. D.

Setting: The Reynolds Museum

Manager: Bill Burke

Board of Directors:

Lindsay Marshall

"Jake" Phelps

Margie Muller

Jacque Aldridge

Upon the erection of a modern high school in 1933, Reynolds was turned into a museum. Since that time the graduates have continued to visit their alma mater and to send tokens of their accomplishments. These articles which are on display have served as mementos of past years.

Bill— (looking over his spectacles) Whew! Wish we didn't have to dust these things every day.

Margie— (dropping a brick on her toe) Ouch! There goes the last piece of the original landing.

(Lindsay, "Jake", and Jacque enter excitedly.)

Lindsay— Dear me!! What was all that racket?

Margie— I broke my toe!

"Jake"— At least you didn't break the new stuffed animal head that came in today from Africa. It's from George "Bring 'Em Back Alive" Young, the renowned explorer.

Lindsay— But did you hear that he met Peggy Spainhour, Dot Smith, Shirley Conrad, Peggy Jones, and Eleanor Butner there? They're dietitians now, and they were in Africa representing the canning company that imports Zebra Steaks.

Bill— Here's an old picture I brought out of the stock room. It's Jo Kathleen Martin's famous modern painting, "Rush to the Lunch Line."

"Jake"— What a masterpiece! She's a mighty fine artist now. The sign says that the picture was posed by the great track stars Jack Barnes, Don Atwood, Frank Elliott, and Joe Brown. And look in the corner at the top. Isn't that Fletcher Grubbs hanging upside down? I hear he's set a new world record of 299 days.

Jacque— And speaking of athletes, do you remember the Junior Hi-Y basketball league of 1952? They won second place in the tournament. Their stars were Bill Burke, Jack Hall, Ned Kinney, Albert Griffin, Floyd Fanjoy, and Jimmy Sheets.

Peggy, I've really enjoyed being in your study hall 1st period. Your class is really a personality and cuteness will get you to the top here at R. F. R. You be good this summer and don't do anything I wouldn't do!

Margie— Don't forget Gene Sapp, who won the state golf championship in his sophomore year.

Bill— What about those Children's Home athletes?

Jacque— Oh, yes! Sue Cox, Mary Johnson, Frankie Wilson, Mildred Riley, Carrie Walters, Ina Clare Reynolds, Ada Reece, Tom Pressley, Evelyn Daniels, Sylvia Staley, and John Walters all started playing varsity sports their freshman year.

Lindsay— Looking at this modern monstrosity reminds me of the beautiful (?) get-ups the girls had to wear in the G. A. A. initiation.

Margie— Hmmm— Bobbie Linville, Pat Stanley, and Joshlyn Frazier looked glamorous in the red and purple ribbons tied on their dozens of pigtails.

Jacque— Speaking of art, Mary Ellen Hartzog did all the art work for our 1953 annual.

Margie— Robert Waser also received recognition that year by winning an award from the Industrial Arts Association.

Bill— Now here's one of our prize possessions. It's a something or other topped with a purple TV antenna. (He holds up a strange contraption.)

"Jake"— That's Gary Simes's new invention. It's a shame he hasn't found a use for it yet.

Lindsay— Yes, it is. But isn't it amazing how many of our classmates have become famous in science? Frank Hawkins and Bob Jeffords have discovered a way to make square peas— makes it easier to keep them on a knife. Mickey McCall, Roger McAvoy, and John Perry run the Fur-lined Coffee Cup Company. Think I'd rather have my coffee cold.

Margie— Remember our biology class in the tenth grade? One of our biology teachers was quite surprised when a promising young actress came to observe us. Pretending to be a relative of one of the students, she was dressed in weird clothing and made remarks which caused the class to laugh during the lesson. This young actress turned out to be Marya Bednerik, who was later to be seen as the student director of "In the Zone."

Jacque— Wasn't that the play with the all-male cast in which Zell McGee proved his worth as an actor? Also Sara Glenn, Joanne Todd, and Carolyn Teachey conquered their stage fright by appearing in the declamation and recitation contests.

Bill— How do you like this antique television set we used to live with?

"Jake"— That was sent to us by Betty Gilroy to enable us to tune in to her TV show.

Lindsay— Yes, I remember her show. I also remember her dancing troupe, who did an interpretation of the theme "RJR Landing at 3:05." June Griffith, Shirley Foster, Barbara Hendrix, Ann Kapps, and Jo Ann Puryear participated in that act. Their costumes were designed by John DuPlessis, the famous fashion stylist.

Bill— And here is Betty's original recording of "Smoke Gets in Your Lungs."

"Jake"— That's the theme song of the bachelors' club, "Hermits, Incorporated." Walt Ratcliffe, Harold Dunnagan, Bob Carmichael, Norman Revelle, Ted Nance, Ed Mickey and Bill Jochum are all devoted members. I heard that Robert Lawrence was made president after he won the burnt toast contest.

Margie— I remember some outstanding organizations at our alma mater. The National Honor Society held an inspiring induction in which Jane Carpenter, Barbara Smith Carol Smith, and Peggy Adams were among those tapped.

Jacque— That certainly was the year of inductions! The Masque and Gavel took in Pellerree Hearn, Sue Durham, and Dave Pardington.

Bill— Don't forget the DeMolay!

Margie— Oh Yes! Don Bullard, Pete Blum, Richard Henderson, Bill Boyer, and Ernest Neumann were active members.

Bill— By the way, did you all see our exhibit of a very famous tongue?

Lindsay— I heard that Juan West lost his tongue hitting high "E" many years ago. He's conducting an old-time BeBop group now. His piccolo line consists of Lawrence Matthews, Jim Smith, Ed Chandler, and Bob Gibson. Stoney Hinkle is also featured with his musical Coke bottle. And another star of the same group is Joan May, who plays an accordion with her toes.

Margie— We had a pair of accomplished pianists in our class, but they played by ear. Billie Cummings and Jimmy Pfaff presented a two-piano concert at Reynolds and at Salem College.

Jacque— The Mixed Chorus won some recognition for our school in the district music contest. Some of those who exercised their vocal chords were Roger DeHart, Barbara King, June Griffith, Barbara Ledbetter, Eleanor Kinsinger, Patti Gorman, Lewis Carter, John Williams and Ann Fowler Jones.

Margie— How about our music maestros, Nancy Whicker and Melba Coston, who were among those who traveled off for a whole week to St. Louis, Missouri, with the All-State Orchestra for the National Music Educators Convention?

"Jake"— That orchestra of ours was good, too.

Jacque— You all gave several excellent music programs. The first concert, for the PTA, featured Ray Newsome with a trumpet solo; Betsy Volff played the piccolo; Sheila O'Keefe sounded off with a bassoon, and Joe Clodfelter fiddled a viola. Bill— Look at this old-fashioned movie film.

"Jake"— (Holding it up before him) Here are Bobby Armfield, Jimmy Bumgardner, John Hardy, Janice Carter, Jo Ruth Bartholomew, Nancy Kelley, Mary Lou Creech, Barbara Fultz, and Shirley Elam. They were shown on flat screens.

Margie— Some of our Senior Marshals could have qualified for screen tests in the movies. Let's see, I remember Jo Ann Hawn, Peggy Paul, Mary Lib Spillers, Carolyn Sprinkle, and Nancy Blum.

Jacque— Our cheerleaders were mighty good looking, too. How about Carolyn Dalton, Diane Harris, and Rachel Purcell, and Martha Legette our 1952 Homecoming Queen? During their high school years, "Bird-legs" Adams and Bobby Alexander also helped to promote school spirit. Bill— Now that you mention it, have you seen our fine collection of upper and lower dental plates?

Lindsay— These are the originals of upper and lower dental plates of the pro-football players Don Elliott, Bill Bradley, and Charles Bowles. They were on the team that played in the Cereal Bowl for three straight years.

Jacque— We had some great football players on our Reynolds team. They won the 1952 State AAA Championship. Deeder Goodson, Tinnie Chapple, Don Hill, Richard Fisher, Dave Hampton, Don Shutt, Charles Weaver, Ronnie Harwood, Pete White, Bill Shelton, Bill Snell, and Stuart Vaughn contributed to that never-to-be-forgotten victory. Four of the outstanding players on the team were also our outstanding Senior Class officers: Roswell Mallory, David Kelly, Bill Gramley, and Nick Kroustalis.

"Jake"— (Holding up a bottle) I haven't seen this exhibit in a long time. This is a strained ligament from Sylvia Craver's Tiddley Wink Team. Ruth Ann Carter, Betsy Rockwell, Charlotte Chapman, Sara Ann Hauser, Jean McNeil, Delores Schaefer, Jeanette Wood, Barbara Davis, Nancy Barwick, and Gerry Scott won the Wheaties Championship for their team.

Margie— Some of our classmates were outstanding in girls' sports in high school. Diane Drummond, Jackie Correll, Patsy Peyton, Betty King, and Martha McBrayer excelled on the varsity.

Bill— Have you seen our new exhibit of used grease paint?

Lindsay— Let me see that label. The stars of the Broadway hit, "Ladies Prefer Gentlemen", donated it. That must have been Ann Ayers, Fran Cohen, and Carolyn Elam. Then there were some more of our old classmates in the chorus. Willie Neal Reynolds, Jackie Moser, Mary Lee Kester, Ann Hale, Peggy Hartman, and Jerry Dixon were included in that.

Jacque— I remember some of our classmates who displayed their talents on the stage. Darlene Rupprecht entered the World Peace contest, while Alice Wahmann and Walter Webb spent their afternoons arguing with the freshman debating team.

Bill— And what do you think of this? It's a stage prop from the new Dimensiavision horror show, "Frankenstein Meets Sam Ogburn."

"Jake"— Um Humm, I saw it the other night. Richard Covington and Malcom Coplon are the stars of that show.

Bill— Look at this exhibit of wilted lettuce.

Lindsay— That must be from the Midnight Trowelers Garden Club. Last I heard, Mary Lee Burton, Sarah Buie, Barbara Bailey, Julia Shore, Amelia Walters, and Peggy Young were busily tending their gardens.

Bill— I like this scale model of the newly developed insect.

"Jake"— The label says it was dedicated to the museum by Mary Ann Payne, Paul Michael, Nancy Lackey, Jeanette Edwards, Lyndon Wall, Bill Black, and Barbara Boles. It must be the result of their experiment in which they crossed a firefly with a mosquito so people could see them coming.

Jacque— Well, what's this empty bottle for?

Bill— Don't open that! That's our exhibit of hot air!

"Jake"— I'll bet some politician from our class gave that to the museum.

Lindsay— Oh, yes! This was presented by the new members of the President's Kitchen Cabinet. And that included Cynthia Tyack, Janet Toth, Margaret Richardson, Shirley Saunders, Ann Watkins, and Betty Welch. They were elected on the parking ticket.

Margie— Speaking of government, Bob Boerner represented us in the ninth grade on the Student Council. Our class officers then were Martha Legette, E. K. James, Mary Nell Meroney, and Ned Kinney.

Jacque— Jake Phelps, Gordon Bonduant, Stuart Vaughn, and Miriam Allred were our class officers for our junior year. You did a fine job then Jake, and also later as president of the student body.

Bill— Here is a wax apple that was sent to us by the National Teachers' Association.

"Jake"— It's autographed, too! (Reading) Betty Sue Blalock, Ann Bowman, Martha Edwards, and Patsy Charles.

Margie— The teachers certainly kept the office staff busy. Nancy Holder and Barbara Brown worked long hours as secretaries in the old office.

Jacque— I'll bet they were on hand to greet the students who walked into the halls of RJR for the first time during their senior year. Those were Jimmy Hudson, Bobby Adams, Marvin Barnette, Gaylord Walker, Bob Bertalan, Bob McFarland, Carol Woods, Gail Overby, and Connie Martin.

Lindsay— Isn't this stuffed baboon simply darling? It's from the Shutt and Shutt Zoo. Of course that must be Barbara and Jean. And I heard that Spencer Stewart, Lindsay Wall, John Stevens, and Robert Sprinkle were the wild animal trainers for the zoo.

Bill— Have you seen this exhibit by the Gravel Lovers' Group?

"Jake"— That looks like the work of Joan Christian, Patsy Snipes, and Kerin Whitlock, the Quarry Dwellers. What nature lovers!

Bill— Look what I found. It's a book called "Pine Whispers of Old Ironsides Who Have Gone with the Wind."

Lindsay— Let me see that. Oh, it was edited by Bill Hunter... with poems by Patti Hines, Doris Hailey, and Judy Johnson. They must have written blank verse— there isn't anything on the pages.

Margie— Pine Whispers reminds me of the editor-in-chief, Nancy Teague, our '53 classmate. Marya Bednerik was managing editor. Miller Carmichael edited boys' sports, while Sue Bowles and Donald Craver served as exchange editors.

Jacque— Look what I found! A 1953 Black and Gold! You were co-editor with Barbara Peddicord, Margie.

Margie— Hey, Lindsay, here's your picture. You were DAR representative of the Senior Class. And Jacque, here's your shining face in the Senior pictures. I remember that you were chairman of the Reynolds High Teen-Age Center Committee.

"Jake"— What are all those old papers stuck in the back of this annual?

Lindsay— Oh, look! This one is a petition to the school board for reclining chairs in chapel.

Jacque— And Bill! Here's the Will you wrote as Testator of our Senior

REYNOLDS LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '53

We, the Reynolds Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-three, being of soundless minds, corresponding health, and aching feet and realizing that our beloved school cannot be carried on in the proper manner without a few legacies from the previously mentioned class, do hereby declare this document to be our official and legitimate Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I

There are very few of us who, for misdemeanors committed, have not occupied a defendant's seat in the office at one time or another. To Mr. Joyner, our principal and judge, we leave our heartfelt gratitude for being so exceedingly patient with us for the past five years.

Section II

We wish to show our appreciation to our teachers for a job well done in attempting to wedge a little knowledge into our steel minds. We also wish to apologize for any gray hairs that may appear as a result of our zany antics. Thus to the underpaid individuals of the faculty we bequeath an estate of love and respect.

Section III

To Miss Stephenson and Mr. Crowell, our advisors, we leave our grateful thanks for their unselfish assistance in the solving of our problems.

Section IV

To the Junior class, who will inherit our term papers, history outlines, autobiographies, physics formulas, and our privilege of being the first to class after chapel, we leave our deepest sympathy, along with a word of advice: Write your term papers before the last night.

ARTICLE II

Section I

Eleanor Crossley and Richard Fisher, the wits of our class, commit to Bess Hart and Bob Tudor their many jokes, puns, anecdotes, satirical gems, and humorous sayings, with the instructions that to be a wit requires big feet and a quick tongue.

Section II

Deeder Goodson, the Bones McKinney of Reynolds High, leaves his basketball abilities to his brother Droopy, who is to carry the family appellation to greater heights of fame.

Section III

Mary Ellen Hartzog, the little girl with the big pen, leaves her outstanding artistic talents to Willie Saylor.

Section IV

Jimmy "Birdlegs" Adams, our answer to the Eiffel Tower, leaves his skyscraping height to Jim Chat-ham with a word of warning: No matter where your head may be, keep your feet on the ground.

Section V

Ray Newsome and Juan West, that brilliant trumpet duo, bequeath their combined capacities to Dickie Ebert, with the sincere hopes that his valves don't stick.

Section VI

Dianne Gibson and Bob Boerner, the members of our class blest with the best looks, commit their hand-features to Frances Montgomery and Joe McKenzie, with the reminder that good looks can be a powerful asset.

Section VII

Don Bullard leaves his inextinguishably loud yells at football games to Bill Shepherd, along with his quart of throat spray.

Section VIII

Frank Groat leaves his naturally curly hair to anyone who will take the time to roll it up at night.

Section IX

Diane Roane wills her big brown eyes to Becky Fitzgerald with the stern demand that she be very careful where she throws them.

Section X

Robert Lawrence leaves his astounding brilliance to Bob Hankins, with the advice that he not concentrate too hard lest he blow a fuse.

Section XI

Dave Pardington, the foremost actor in the class, wills his role in the dramatics department to David Ed-

Dear Peggy -

You are really the best of girls - You deserve the best and you have it when you have Stone - she have really told some good times together - for instance, the beach party last year - parties, slender parties, and many, many other things.

I'm sorry about the party has turned out this year - but that is the way best things so. I hope that "Known wherever there are Schools and Colleges" you have for this summer but be good - Take care of Stone - good luck to both of you.

Bill Snell leaves his diploma to Mr. Ramseur, as Bill believes that Mr. Ramseur receives the most joy from his departure.

Section XIII

Lindsay Wall bequeaths his little date book to George Agee, who has solemnly sworn to carry on Lindsay's boycotting tradition.

Section XIV

Miriam Allred leaves her leadership abilities to Mary Irving Carlyle with the philosophy that to lead is one thing, to lead well is another.

Section XV

Jack Barnes bequeaths his beloved bed in physics class to anyone who desires it, provided he keeps the moths out of the mattress this summer.

Section XVI

Malcom Coplon wills his trouble-making camera to Gerald Wilson, who hopes nothing goes wrong with his timing.

Section XVII

Shirley Elam and Jerry Drew Dixon leave their tremendous size to Jo Ann Hege and Joyce Tuttle.

Section XVIII

Richard Henderson leaves his knack at leading a band to John Garvey, with hopes that he wins a few prizes, too.

Section XIX

Nancy Blum decided at the last moment to keep her many Davidson weekends for herself.

Section XX

Nancy Teague and Marya Bednerik leave Pine Whispers in the hands of Kay Shepherd and Mary Lou Darsey, along with the advice that they wear wigs during the rush days because it doesn't hurt to pull the wig.

Section XXI

Peggy Paul wills her flashy convertible to Louise Myers and hopes that her oil pressure does not get so low as to necessitate a bill of repairs.

Section XXII

Johnny Perry leaves his long hair and rhinoceros shears to Reid Clark, who will have to get them sharpened before they can be used.

GRAY PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF '53

June 2, 1973

Dear Diary,

What a wonderful week I have had! I have just returned from a trip to Mars, where all the members of the 1953 graduating class of Gray High School are now living. As those people were always the first in everything, they were the first to migrate to Mars!

After boarding a Flying Saucer, designed by Eugene Hicks and piloted by that timid driver, James Royall, we arrived on Mars at 13
o'clock in the town of Stimsonville, named for that great scientist, Kitt Stimson. He, with his three assistants, Mike Joyce, Jack Mabe, and Jim Pappas have discovered a new substance to hold all the universe together instead of blowing it to bits as was thought of in 1953.

Upon deciding to take a tour of the planet, we called "Nichols Taxi," which we thought would certainly be the cheapest vehicle around.
When it arrived, we found that the taxi was owned by Ray Nichols, and that prices have sky-rocketed
on Mars just as they did on Earth back in 1953.

Jimmy Salmons and Tommy Long,
those bold policemen; and Joan Barr, policewoman, were having an argument as to how they might clear up the problem of space car traffic on Thinway, the main street in town.

An ad in Carol Sloan's Beauty Shoppe showed Douglas Brooks and
"Corky" Southerland advertising
Don Swaim's new gray hair dye.
Joan Brown, Dixie Adams, and Anne Pifer were modeling the new cow's tail hair-do, while Sarah Ann Hyatt, Peggy Miller, and Nancy Knouse went all out for the new cocker hair style.

Operated by Elwood, Speas' Show-house was featuring Jimmy Bowman, the best-loved comedian; and Jack Cottrell and Pattie Mathis, the saddest people on Mars. Terry Jones, Rose Vogler, Robert Williard, and Rebecca Teague are now instructors in Charles Reid's new school of tap and ballet. As our taxi moved along, we saw a huge billboard on which appeared Jerry Anne Jervis showing how a person looks who never smiles!

On one avenue was the store, "Styles for the Sharp," owned by Janet Sharp. Finding it quite a problem to choose any style suited to them were Jo Ann Bobbitt, Nancy Fishel, Faye Hilton, Libby Hutchins, and Sue Shermer. Leaving the cab, our group visited the school, where several of my former classmates Milton Church, Dickie Shermer, Shirley Baucom, Beverly Nance, and Magdalene Walker were having such a difficult time with their studies; while Sylvia Massey and Shirley Myers, champion jack-rock players, were practicing on the play field.

As we walked out of the door, we saw something big and sticky falling from the sky. Looking closely, we noticed it was samples of the candy made by the Great Balls of Peppermint Factory, operated by Ronnie Hutchins and Nancy Royall.

As we were hungry and tired, we stopped at Hugh McKnight's new restaurant, where the main dish was his specialty, cold dog. While sitting there, we heard the new record, "It's Not in the Book," written by Nancy Billings, and sung by Victor Pope and Jimmy Payne. At that moment, three celebrities walked in. People were rushing to get the autographs of Ernest Yokley and Clark Butner, shortest and lightest weight boxers on Mars; while Henry Caudle, the heavy-weight champ, stood boldly to the side. Madame Edith Speaks gave us quite a thrill when she told our fortunes by reading coffee grounds.

There was much talk about the newly-formed club, "Ye Olde Spinners," charter members of which are Loretta and Joan Baynes and Lenia Robbins. Peggy Bodenheimer, Barbara Brooks, Shirley Calloway, Myrl Dean Call, Peggy Hartley, and Pattie Higginbotham are digging in the diamond mines on Mars trying to find a diamond to wear on their fingers someday.

Everyone enjoyed visiting the television show starring those talkative boys: Rodney Calloway, Norman Casper, Lynn Stewart, Donald Huff, Vann Perryman, and Junior Howerton. Katherine Long, Margie Perryman, and Martha Robinson were excellent in their three-person pantomime, since they never enjoy talking. After Edgar Alford gave his original version of the latest news, Bobby James and Tommy Story gave a two-hour voice recital. Charles Griffith and Carolyn Turner were supposed to be on the program, but they refuse to take part in any kind of musical concert.

Two members of our graduating class have been benefactors to the people on Mars: Bill Jones, because of his great love for hospitals has given the money for a new one, while John Cook is acting as the head bone surgeon. Just recently Betty Dooley, the first woman ever to be a candidate for president, was defeated, because the crowds just wouldn't yell her way. Ralph Siewers and James Roland were also on the ticket, defeated because both are quite bashful and find it hard to take part in any activity.

As we were passing by the men's gym, three of my old friends walked out. Jerry Huff said he had been trying to put on some weight and broaden his shoulders; Frank Foster is teaching first aid; while, of all things, Larry Reavis had been trying to sink a basketball at the most important time! Frances Neal, Carolyn Hurst, Barbara Willard, Janet Ketner, Nannette Turner, and Frances Bobbitt, who felt as if they needed vim and vigor, are preparing a new drink, Dr. Salt, which is for sale. People say that it really has a different taste.

Late in the afternoon, we went to a talent show in Television City Music Hall, where Jerry and Janet Smith headed the bill as the "Two Most-Widely Different Girls in the Universe." One of the biggest acts of the day was the comic one by the loose-tongued six: Miriam Alspaugh, Norma Beck, Billie Bowman, Ann Ernest, Joan Gardner, and Avis Harris. Shirley Caudill, by playing in Nancy Spann's "Yadkin River Story" hopes someday to perfect her bit-characterization. The announcement that the Marstrotters, champion women's basketball team, was playing that night at the gym brought much applause. Peggy Wilhelm, Bonita Troxell, Jean White, Ruth Cook, and Shirley Jones are stars on the team. Daniel Klutz, famous biologist, was in the audience, while Bobby Wayne, stage hand, was busy backstage. Bobby looked very striking in his dull somber shirt that night.

After seeing so many queer sights, we were more than ever distressed when we learned that Bertie Scott, Delores Smith, Peggy Walker, Doris Wishon, Ruth Mayberry, Barbara Myers, and Mildred Myers were all imprisoned for being the most uncooperative people on Mars. Jane

GRAY HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '53

September 3, 1949

Dear Diary,

I must tell you! The most exciting thing has happened! At last we are freshmen! The long-awaited year has arrived. How eager and enthusiastic we feel, beginning our high school days! Got to run now and pay my book fees!

October 25, 1949

Already making themselves known in student organization work are James Roland, Ralph Siewers, Dixie Adams, Janet Ketner, and Peggy Miller as board members and superintendents. One of our freshmen, Jerry Anne Jervis, who was queen of the Fall Festival, is assistant-secretary of the school. Another freshman I must mention to you is Jerry Huff, who is getting a good start in football as co-captain of the Junior High team.

March 15, 1950

Ralph Siewers and Corky Southerland won the honor of being "On the Beam," bestowed upon them by the Gray Light, and Jimmy Bowman is corresponding-secretary of the city-wide Junior Red Cross. Oh, my, time to do my algebra homework!

Bye for now,
Shirley

September 3, 1950

Dear Diary,

It is now our sophomore year, which is beginning with less confusion but more determination to make our years at Gray count for the most. To start the ball rolling Ralph Siewers has become assistant-secretary of the school, and Jerry Huff, treasurer.

Stepping high with our band are Betty Dooley, Carolyn Hurst, Nannette Turner, and Joan Brown. The second string majorettes are Ruth Cook, Barbara Myers, and Loretta McClain.

In journalism Anita Hiatt is associate editor of the Gray Light, and Margie Perryman, exchange editor.

November 10, 1950

I am so proud of my friends! Barbara Myers, Frances Neal, Katherine Long, Shirley Myers, Shirley Calloway, and Sylvia Massey have gained entrance into the G. A. A.; Beverly Nance and Anita Hiatt are negative debaters; and Carol Sloan and Jerry Anne Jervis, the affirmative team.

April 4, 1951

Before I forget, I want to tell you about another event. The Key Club has accepted James Roland, Ralph Siewers, Larry Reavis, Charles Reid, Bill Jones, and Dickie Shermer. Also Shirley Caudill, Shirley Myers, and Dickie Shermer have been recognized in the newspaper column, "On the Beam."

Masque and Gavel inductees were Anita Hiatt, Beverly Nance, Shirley Caudill, Dickie Shermer, Ralph Siewers, and Jerry Anne Jervis. Hugh McKnight, Ronnie Hutchins, Mike Joyce, and Bill Jones are new inductees of the Hi-Y.

Oh, I must hurry and study my "Bugology" for that test tomorrow.

Sincerely,
Shirley

September 3, 1951

Dear Diary,

Feeling proud of our accomplishments, a little ashamed of our failures, but eager to make the remaining years at Gray better than ever, we are nearing our goal.

Our junior-class officers are president, Jerry Huff; vice-president, Shirley Caudill; secretary, Beverly Nance; treasurer, Ernest Yokley.

Some of the superintendents are Ann Pifer, Jane Barnes, Shirley Baucom, Nancy Royall, Magdalene Walker, Ruth Mayberry, and Charles Reid.

October 10, 1951

Margie Perryman has been inducted into the Quill and Scroll, a national honorary society for journalists.

Yelling for Gray's football team are Betty Dooley, Barbara Willard, Martha Robinson, Shirley Calloway, and Corky Southerland.

In the field of journalism Margie Perryman is associate editor and Beverly Nance, feature editor.

ident of the Masque and Gavel with Dickie Shermer, vice-president; and Ralph Siewers, treasurer. New inductees are Charles Reid and Milton Church.

Vice-president of the G. A. A. is Sylvia Massey. A new service club has been formed, the G. R. A.; and the vice-president is Shirley Caudill, aided by secretary, Shirley Baucom, and treasurer, Beverly Nance.

December 9, 1952
 Everyone was sitting on pins and needles today when the National Honor Society began tapping members. Those of us who were tapped were Milton Church, Miriam Alpaugh, Shirley Baucom, Nancy Ruth Spann, Jerry Anne Jervis, Nancy Fishel, Dickie Shermer, Magdalene Walker, Beverly Nance, James Roland, and Anita Hiatt.

March 21, 1952
 Nancy Fishel looks quite grand along with the other members of the band in her new uniform. Leading the band are Joan Brown, chief of the majorettes, Barbara Myers, Loretta McClain, Nannette Turner, and Carolyn Hurst.

We are proud of Jerry Anne Jervis, first place winner of the "Selling as a Career" contest, and Shirley Baucom, third place winner in the city. Another event I want to tell you is that Anita Hiatt is going to represent our city at the Y-Teen Convention in Chicago.

April 17, 1952
 There is so much to tell you about all our honors! The affirmative debating team composed of Carol Sloan and Jerry Anne Jervis, is the winner of the District contest and has been recognized as the best affirmative team in the state. Milton Church is winner of the Rotarian cup, and Shirley Baucom has been elected state vice-president of the National Honor Society.

We are honored that Bill Jones, Jane Barnes, and Dickie Shermer have had their poems accepted to be published in the anthology of "Winston-Salem Poets."

Carol Sloan is the school winner of the "I Speak for Democracy" contest.

May 16, 1952
 The seniors have elected as marshals Shirley Caudill, chief; Loretta McClain, Nancy Royall, Joan Brown, Jerry Anne Jervis, and Anita Hiatt.

Player of the week in football is Jerry Huff; in baseball, Don Swaim; and in basketball, Bill Jones and Larry Reavis.

September 3, 1952

Dear Diary,

We are so thrilled! The long-awaited day has arrived at last! After many years of waiting, hoping, and planning, we are proud to be seniors and are looking forward to a wonderful last year of high school.

Class officers are James Roland, president; Shirley Caudill, vice-president; Carol Sloan, secretary; and Don Swaim, treasurer.

Working hard on the newspaper is Margie Perryman, editor-in-chief of Gray Light. Aiding her are Jack Cottrell, managing editor; Jean White, business manager; Beverly Nance, associate editor; and Magdalene Walker, senior editor.

Shirley Baucom is serving as president of the National Honor Society along with Dickie Shermer, vice-president; secretary, Nancy Fishel; assistant secretary, Miriam Alspaugh; and treasurer, James Roland.

President of our Student Organization is Jerry Anne Jervis, who is also our D. A. R. representative.

October 10, 1952

An important event of our senior year is electing the superlatives. For wittiest we elected Ronnie Hutchins and Nancy Billings; most athletic, Bill Jones and Sylvia Massey; best looking, Don Swaim and Loretta McClain; most popular, Jerry Huff and Jerry Anne Jervis; most intellectual, Dickie Shermer and Shirley Baucom; friendliest, Kitt Stimson and Beverly Nance; best all around, Ralph Siewers and Anita Hiatt; and most likely to succeed, Dickie Shermer and Shirley Baucom.

Our Class Day Officers are prophet, Anita Hiatt; historian, Shirley Baucom; testator, Beverly Nance.

November 17, 1952

The Mascots elected by our senior class are Rickie Greenwood, sponsored by Corky Southerland; and Dona Poston, sponsored by Shirley Jones.

Because of her helpfulness, friendliness, and leadership, we elected Mrs. Jessie Ostrander for the dedication of the Blue and Gold.

December 5, 1952

Anita Hiatt is the city and county winner of the "I Speak for Democracy" contest, and Ernest Yokley was chosen to play in the Shrine Bowl game in Charlotte. Also Jerry Huff is co-captain of the AA All-Conference team. Another outstanding senior in football is Bill Jones, who was chosen for the second team of the All-Conference eleven.

January 23, 1953

The three honor societies have had their inductions. Those selected are the National Honor Society: Bertha Ann Ernest, Sarah Ann Hyatt, Mike Joyce, Margie Perryman, Bertie Ann Scott, and Peggy Walker; the Quill and Scroll: Shirley Myers, Sarah Ann Hyatt, Magdalene Walker, Jean White, and Beverly Nance; and the Masque and Gavel: James Roland and Jack Cottrell.

June 3, 1953

Thus, dear diary, ends the history of the graduating class of '53, but not forever, for we shall still make history as time goes by, because of the help, friendship, and leadership of our principal, Mr. Woodward, and our wonderful faculty.

Now I must run and try on my cap and gown. Bye to you, dear diary, guardian of the memories of our high school days!

Section VI

Carolyn "Goober" Turner, Ann "Skipper" Pifer, and Don "Barney" Swaim leave Melvin "Mouse" Knouse, Mary "Snookie" Mayberry, and Mary "Pokey" Long to suffer through school with their beautiful nicknames.

Section VII

Jean White leaves all her headaches and worries about money to the new business manager of the Gray Light.

Section VIII

Charles Griffith leaves his ability to play that 'hot trumpet' to Johnny Lasley.

Section IX

Sarah Ann Hyatt leaves her trim pony-tail hair-do to the girl with the poodle-cut, Shirley Gentry.

Section X

Kitt Stimson, nicknamed "Yankee," leaves his ability to make friends to Eddie Owens, in case Eddie's ability ever fails.

Section XI

To the 1953 football team, Ernest Yokley leaves his height, build, and weight in hopes that they will put it to good use.

Section XII

Rose Vogler leaves her place on the bench in all the girls varsity sports in hopes that it will be left vacant from now on.

ARTICLE III

Section I

For being a good friend and baseball coach, we do hereby appoint Mr. Jack Fletcher as executor of this our Last Will and Testament.

In witness thereof we affix our seal, this second day of June, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

HANES PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF '53

At last my dream of seeing Paris had come true! And I had found it all that I imagined it would be. Now after six glorious months, I was returning home. Upon entering the air terminal before boarding my plane I heard someone call my name. I turned to see a very chic young lady whom I recognized as my old classmate, Pat Shields, who was now married and was touring the country with her husband and his professional football team. As we waited for my plane we talked of our high school days back in the Twin City. Pat told me that Davye Hiatt and his "Knights of Melody" were playing at the Metropolitan Opera House, owned by the great classical artist, Robert Welborn. Shirley Lancaster is the featured vocalist for the summer. Pat told me to be sure to go see "Wigglin' Willie Craver," who is dancing at Billy Joe's Diamond Horseshoe in New York City. This reminded me that I had seen the American Rockettes who were making a ten days' run at the Theater Gay Paree; and much to my surprise, I had recognized June Nichols, Peggy Jo Martin, Monna Dean Tucker, Jo Ann Whisenant and Patsy Eubanks among that famous group of dancers.

Pat said she had seen Gladys Stamper and Doris Crafford in Africa; Pearl Shouse, Helen Bodenheimer and Jeanette Smith in South America, where they were teaching the Latins how to do the "Shag" with a South American touch.

When my plane arrived I said good-by to Pat, only to be welcomed by another Pat—Pat Carter, who was flight nurse. Finding a seat for me she went back to work getting all her passengers settled for the flight.

Passing through, Pat told me that the pilots on our plane were Jack Miller and James Thompson and that in forty-five minutes we would be in Winston-Salem.

As I thumbed through a Gay-Wee magazine, edited by Gayle Heck and Weeta White, I spied pictures of Jeanne Parks and Jane Austin who were now modeling for the Thomas Kirby Model Agency. Carolyn Collins and Diana Haymore, along with their daughters, were modeling mother-daughter outfits. I saw that most of the pictures in the magazine were taken by big-time photographer Tommy Bernard.

After we had landed, I hailed a taxi-cab. I recognized the driver Larry Ivester. I told him to take me to Hauser's Hotel, (named for that great industrialist, Coell Hauser) where I was taken to my room by C. H. Harris, still in uniform, who was now chief bell hop. On the way to my room I bought a newspaper from Bobby Martin, who had gone broke on Calder Street, which was once known as Wall Street, but had been renamed in honor of Ed Calder, who now was president of Western Electric Company.

Since I was quite tired I decided not to unpack my clothes right away. I picked up my paper and seated myself in a comfortable chair. The first thing I saw on the front page was a picture of Dr. John Tatum. I wasn't too surprised when I read the head-line, "Local Doctor Wins National Open in Chicago."

Upon reading the article I found that John and Charlie Martin, local businessmen were teaching a course in the "Art of Good Golfing", as a sideline. Some of their former pupils that had made good were Jo Ann "Babe" Wilson, "Fran" Freeman, "Slammin' Sammy" Salmons and "Doc" Dockery.

Turning to the society page I saw that society-leaders Ann Carpenter and Iris Jackson were throwing a big "ball" in honor of Peggy and Shirley Reavis who had just returned from Hollywood and their first academy award performances in "Two Women in White." Among the famous names that appeared on the published guest list was General James Allen who was in command at West Point. I hoped I would be invited to this gala affair.

Glancing on the next page I saw that Emory Lu Rawlinson was competing with movie actress Daphne Wilson for the title of "Miss Venus." This contest was to be held in the great metropolis of Kernersville this year. Winston-Salem's mayor, Wayne Gough, was to be chief judge.

Turning to the entertainment page I saw that tonight was a big night at Catlett's Corner (local nightclub owned by Jimmy Catlett). Bink's Bombshells were to appear there for the first time below the Mason-Dixon line. The girls in Mary Ben Tuttle's troupe were, "Bubbles" Buchanan, "Babs" Sprinkle, "Josie" Pritchard, and "Attie" Atkinson. Jean Tutterow and JoAnn Wooten were featured as the Dancing Darlings.

Turning to the sports page I saw that the University of North Carolina had just employed a new head football coach. I was pleased to see that Charles Hoover had been chosen by the board of trustees, headed by James Shouse. I saw that Hoover had chosen two of his old teammates for the position of backfield and line coaches. They were Red Calloway and Ralph Clark, respectively.

In a column called "Austin's Articles," written by Gene Austin, I read that Tom Brown, basketball coach at Duke, was expecting great things from his '68 team. In this column there was also an article about Ed Lawson, who is employed at Duke as kicking tutor.

Getting to the sport of the season, I read that the Rebels, (which replaced the Yankees), were in first place in the American League. Their manager, Joltin' Johnny Wagoner, had predicted a winner as far back as early May.

On the next page I saw that Don Sebastian was now band director at my old alma mater and that Barbara Ratledge was voice instructor. The faculty for Hanes was announced under this paragraph. Some of my old classmates that were now teaching there were: Mozelle Hodges, and Nancy Whitaker, Home Economics; Shirley Blanton, Mathematics; Ronald Poindexter as debating coach, and Tommy Lou Gant, Commercial teacher. Judging from this list I saw that most of our old teachers had retired for a much deserved rest.

By this time it was getting late and I was quite sleepy. Yawning I told myself that I would look up my old classmates the first thing in the morning.

HANES HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '53

In the fall of 1949, Hanes High was the scene of much excitement, and the woeful cries of sub-freshman could be heard throughout the school. It wasn't unusual for us to be caught going through the wrong door or running in the halls. The upper-classman, especially the Seniors, thought it great sport to watch our blunders.

Some of the members of our class became active in school life even this first year. We had representation in the Y-Teens, the Dramatics Club, and the band.

We lived through that first year somehow; and after a summer's vacation, we felt a little more experienced and were actually anxious to return to tackle the next step in our journey toward graduation.

Peggy Reavis, Don Sebastian, Nancy Jo Whitaker, John Tatum, and Charles Hoover joined the Spanish Club; the following became interested in music: Maryalice Buchanan, Jane Austin, Willie Mae Craver, and Ann Carpenter, who were members of the chorus. Many of our boys showed promise of becoming

At the close of the year Tom Brown received the honor of being the Most Outstanding Freshman.

Again summer vacation came, and when it ended, we were anxious and ready to get back into the swing of things.

As sophomores, we became more active in clubs and all other activities of the school. Wayne Calloway and Johnny Wagoner were members of the basketball team.

Monna Dean Tucker won the Alcohol Essay Contest, and Frances Freeman won the recitation contest.

Returning, the next year as Juniors, we felt full of confidence and of the realization that we held an important place in our school.

This year the class had large representations in many of the clubs. Members of the Hi-Y were Gene Austin, Johnny Wagoner, Wayne Gough, John Tatum, Bobby Salmons, Bill Brown, Ronald Poindexter, and Coell Hauser. The National Honor Society inducted Barbara Ratledge, Frances Freeman, Weeta White, Shirley Blanton, and Tommye Lou Gant.

Peggy Reavis, Shirley Reavis, and Iris Jackson were members of the cheerleading squad.

Our class was represented in the Excelsior Club by Frances Freeman, Peggy Reavis, Barbara Ledwell, Gayle Heck, Ann Carpenter, and Barbara Sprinkle. Frances Freeman was also a member of the Varsity Debating team.

The Masque and Gavel inducted into membership Ann Carpenter, Davye Hiatt, Monna Dean Tucker, and Frances Freeman. Gayle Heck and Barbara Ledwell were inducted into the Quill and Scroll.

The climax of our Junior year was our Junior-Senior Prom, held on the roof of the Robert E. Lee Hotel. Our class officers: Wayne Gough, President; Wayne Calloway, Vice-President; Weeta White, secretary; and Ann Carpenter, treasurer did a wonderful job on this project.

When annuals were distributed in the spring, we faced the startling fact that when we returned again, we would be Seniors!

Now, as the year of '53 opened, our dream had come true—at last, we were Seniors. We felt very proud as we marched down the aisle to claim the front seats, on which we had gazed with envy for four years.

We elected as officers of the senior class Wayne Calloway, President; Tom Brown and Peggy Jo Martin, Vice-Presidents; Pat Martin, secretary; and Gayle Heck, treasurer. The superlatives elected were: Wayne Gough and Peggy Reavis, Class Day officers were Barbara Ledwell, prophet; Peggy Jo Martin, testator; and Tommye Lou Gant, historian.

Bobby Martin, Wayne Calloway, Wayne Gough, Coell Hauser, Tom Brown, Charles Hoover, and Johnny Wagoner were members of the H-Club.

Frances Freeman was chosen as D. A. R. representative.

The Quill and Scroll inducted Ann Carpenter, Weeta White, Wayne Gough, Charles Hoover, Nancy Whitaker, Tommy Bernard, and Frances Freeman.

Charles Hoover was elected monitor-in-chief.

Newcomer Bobbie Lou Martin joined us in our senior year.

Wayne Gough was our mayor and Robert Dockery was city manager.

In the Journalism department Barbara Ledwell and Ann Carpenter were co-editors of the yearbook; Gayle Heck and Weeta White co-editors of the newspaper.

Ann Carpenter was inducted into the National Honor Society.

Emory Lu Rawlinson was our entry for Piedmont Bowl Queen.

During this year, Hanes, for the first time, organized a College Club because a greater number of students were interested in college. Officers of the club were: Tom Brown, president; Pat Carter, vice-president; Willie Mae Craver, secretary; and Jane Austin, treasurer.

Outstanding seniors in Distributive Education were Betty Sue Lakey, Helen Bodenheimer, Pearl Shouse, and Mozelle Hodges.

Frances Freeman and James Thompson were members of the varsity debating team.

Peggy Reavis, Shirley Reavis, Peggy Jo Martin, June Nichols, and Jo Ann Wilson aided our speedball team in winning the city championship.

Six members of the varsity football team, Charles Hoover, Wayne Calloway, Ralph Clark, Coell Hauser, Edgar Lawson, and Johnny Wagoner were invited to play in the Piedmont Bowl Game.

The basketball team elected Johnny Wagoner as their captain.

HANES LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '53

We, the 1953 senior class of John W. Hanes High School, being of sound body and of acceptable mind, realizing that our day of departure is drawing nigh, do hereby make this Last Will and Testament, leaving our worthless but cherished possessions to those whom we are leaving behind.

ARTICLE I

Section I

To Mr. R. S. Haltiwanger, our beloved principal, we express our deepest gratitude for his understanding and guidance throughout our high school term, and for the wonderful example he has set for us.

Section II

To Mrs. Perry, Miss Ford, and Mrs. Burns, our Senior teachers, we are sincerely grateful for the assistance given us this last year. We are leaving to them the rising Seniors, who we know can't live up to our low standard of study and intelligence.

Section III

To the faculty we leave the remaining students, hoping that they will not cause any more worry and gray hair than we did. Also we wish to express our thanks for all the things done by members of the faculty to make us better students.

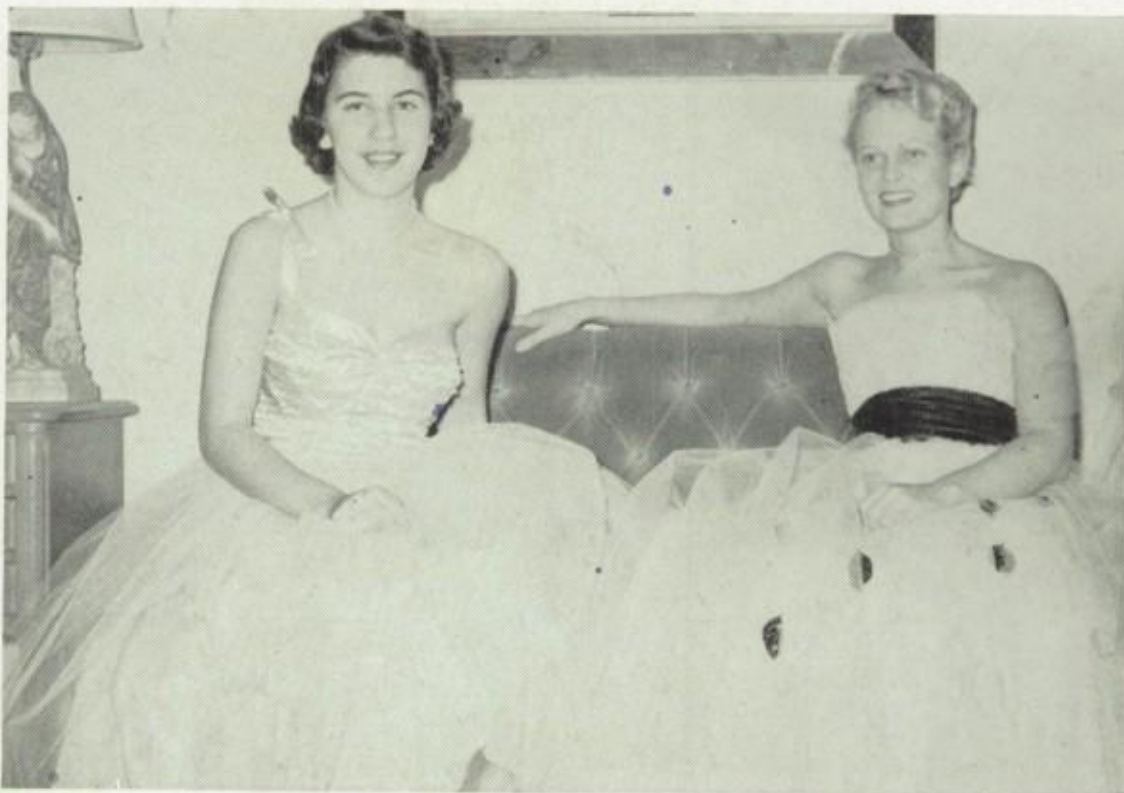

Section IV

To the Juniors who will next year try to fill our places and to follow our wonderful examples (which, of course, is impossible), we leave all the privileges we have enjoyed as Seniors. We especially wish to leave our front seats in the auditorium which are a bit scarred and carved up, but which are still dear to us.

ARTICLE II

Section I

Wayne Calloway, Johnny Wagoner and Tom Brown, (having no other choice) leave their girl friends.

SISTER: (in law)

Don't ever forget all the great times I had with one of the cutest gibs Steve ever married: No joke, ~~you~~ You made me think that maybe my brother had sort of a good taste after all...in wimmin, anyway. You sho' made me get on the stick several times when I sorta drifted off. And those mighty great folks of yours sho' made me a great home when I didn't have one. So the cutest girl in Reynolds high school (of course, I'm leaving out one - wot did you think?) I want to wish all the best of luck. With the dumb bird you have to help you, you'll need luck. But he's my brother - and he's ugly, too. Your great ma and your great dad are great - NO JOKE! Wow - Brilliant, WATSON! Listen, lady, I can't just put down how I feel. I couldn't think of anything that could tell you. So I just hope you'll feel wot I'm talking about. Even if it does show family pride, I'll tell you one thing, gal: You've been hooked by the greatest guy this side of.. So don't let him go. Steve has done more for you, and you've done more for Steve than either one of you know.. and maybe more than you'll admit. But if anything ever happens to this great team - of Pegg and Steve - then there won't be much use for the rest of us to try - see wot I mean. You're the greatest - so is Steve - so don't either one of you try anything that would mess anything up - or I'll sic KARL on you. and KARL sees all. Write more later - when I can - Please now - just Look before you leap - and you'll never leave. Thank for listening

Your Bro. in Law will

Always Lov Yr

Peggy,
you're a cute girl!
I say as sweet
as you are.
I don't help

Peggy,
I certainly am glad to have become a friend of yours this year. I hope we'll always be good friends. Good luck always.
Peggy

Best of luck
to a Darling girl. Just stay that way.
Love ya,
Jackie

Peggy,
Loads of luck
to a fine little girl. You certainly are a cute lil
majorette. Have fun
on those band
trips next year.
Becky P Benson

Lots of luck
to a very cute girl.
Have a nice
summer.
Carolyn

Good luck always to a swell girl. Be good to someone this summer
and remember. Joe Mc Kenzie

Best wishes to a sweet girl, have fun this summer
I'll see you next year
Jeff Brady

Peggy,
We sure have
had fun this year (especially with our friend
Mr. Sifford) Let's not forget them, and all the luck in the world to
a D. cute girl.
Love ya always!
Patsy Edwards

Best of luck to a swell
girl, and may all the wishes of your heart be granted unto you
Bill Rudolph

Lots of luck
to a swell girl.
I've enjoyed being
in your homeroom
this year.
Helen Richardson

Carolyn
Best of luck. Take it easy on Steve this summer, and don't do anything I wouldn't do (that leaves you free)
Hugh

Peg-
It has really been swell seeing you this year. I don't mean any annual bull when I say I think you're one of the finest!
Love ya!
Bozue

Good luck to a swell girl.
I hope you get in some of my classes next year.
Love ya,
Marva

Peggy,
I have enjoyed being
in your study hall this year. See you this summer.
Love ya
Pat Crim

Peg-

I've really enjoyed knowing you this year. I'm sorry you didn't like me at first - but I've tried to make up for it. You're one of the sweetest gals I know and I wish you the best in life -
Love + luck,
Bernie
Willmoth

Carolyn,
It's been great knowing
a fine girl like you.
Clint

Loads of luck
to a real sweet gal
Johnny Ingle

Best of luck to you
Tony Patton

So a sweet girl. mighty
next year in the band.
Raymond

Peggy,
It really has been great knowing such a "dasher" gal. Keep that sweet smile + that great personality and
you'll always be tops.
Love ya!
Shirley

Best of luck to a cute and
swell girl. ya,
Love ya,
Linda

"Peg", It's been great knowing you this year. You've really helped out the band this year. Good Luck in all you do
Harry Heitman

Denny
Best of Luck always to a fine girl. It has been swell knowing you this year.
Be good and don't do anything
I wouldn't HA - HA

Kim Peterson
Carolyn.

Carolyn,
It's really been great being in school with you this year. Remember our great Algebra classes. (Ha Ha). Keep up your great work and looks and personality and you'll really be "gone" at ale E. J. R. Be good and have fun this summer. See ya! Bill Taylor

We've sure had fun this year, haven't we.
Even though Algebra
hasn't been so much fun being in your class sure has. Best of luck to a swell
gal. See ya this summer. Love ya,
me Sandra
